Queens College

Queens College is a diversified, co-educational, private, student-centered liberal arts college affiliated with the Presbyterian Church. There are three units of the College which serve the diverse needs of a variety of students. The College of Arts and Sciences offers traditional liberal arts majors, a unique interdisciplinary core program, an international experience, and career preparation through a required internship for a residential student body which is largely drawn from the eastern seaboard. The Hayworth College offers undergraduate and graduate courses of study to a primarily adult student body drawn from the Charlotte area. The McColl School of Business offers business programs in both undergraduate colleges as well as graduate business programs (MBA and EMBA). In all of its educational programs, Queens emphasizes active learning, close student-teacher relationships, and connection between the work of the classroom and the world of work, using the greater Charlotte area for experiential learning.

Hayworth College and McColl School of Business operate under a trimester system, the College of Arts and Sciences operates on a semester system. This Catalog describes the programs of the Hayworth College. Separate catalogs describe the College of Arts and Sciences and the McColl School of Business programs.

Accreditation

Queens College is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097: telephone number 404-679-4501) to award the following degrees:

- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Music
- Bachelor of Science
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing
- Master of Arts
- Master of Arts in Teaching
- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Fine Arts
- Master of Science in Nursing

The National Association of Schools of Music and the National Association of Music Therapy have accredited the college’s programs in music. The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction have fully accredited the education program. The nursing program is approved by the North Carolina State Board of Nursing and accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission (NLNAC). Queens is also approved for veteran education.
The business programs in the McColl School of Business are nationally accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

Mission Statement

Queens College, private and Presbyterian, educates students for noble lives, productive careers, and responsible citizenship, all within a changing global community. Queens seeks national preeminence as a student-centered college that enhances the traditional liberal arts with career preparation to provide an education that is both intellectually challenging and practical.

To fulfill its mission, Queens provides its students with opportunities to develop:

- a personal philosophy of life reflecting high ethical standards and spiritual values, commitment to service, and a recognition of the intrinsic worth of all individuals.
- an ability to think clearly and independently, to make critical judgements in a variety of changing contexts, and to communicate effectively in writing and speaking.
- a basic knowledge of the academic disciplines and their interrelationships, and a special competence in one or more areas of study in preparation for professional activity or graduate study.
- appropriate knowledge and abilities to work creatively with others, to adapt to change, and to be responsible citizens and leaders in their communities.
- an understanding and appreciation of culture, including an informed respect for the differences among cultures, and an understanding of the global nature of our society.
Queens was founded in 1857 as the Charlotte Female Institute, then located on College Street near the center of the city. For five years after 1891, it was called the Seminary for Girls; after affiliating with the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina in 1896, it became known as the Presbyterian College for Women. In 1912, anticipating the move to its present campus in the Myers Park residential area in 1914, it became Queens College.

That name revived pre-Revolutionary traditions, for in 1771 a group of North Carolina colonists sought a royal charter for a Queens College, to be located in the town of Charlotte, which was named for the British Queen, Charlotte of Mecklenburg. George III refused the petition, doubting the wisdom of creating an institution to perpetuate non-conformist views favored by the Scotch-Irish Presbyterians who had settled in Piedmont Carolina. A school was chartered in 1773, however, under the unusual name of Queens Museum. During the Revolution, it sympathized with the colonial cause and became known as the Liberty Hall Academy.

The academy’s post-Revolutionary history is sketchy, but in 1821 the Male and Female Academy Corporation was chartered to operate the Liberty Male Academy, the predecessor of Davidson College, and the Charlotte Female Academy, the predecessor of the Charlotte Female Institute.

In 1930, Queens became related to the Presbyterian Synod of South Carolina through a merger with Chicora College in Columbia, S.C. (formerly in Greenville). With the creation of the Synod of the Southeast in 1973, Queens’ official church relationship was extended to include Presbyterians in Georgia as well as those in the Carolinas. Subsequent restructuring of the Presbyterian Church has given Queens ties to both the South Atlantic and the Mid-Atlantic synods.

In the aftermath of World War II, Queens admitted its first male students in a non-residential status. A coeducational Evening College, the forerunner of the New College and present Hayworth College, was created in 1948.

Queens’ first master’s degree program, the Master of Business Administration, began in 1980. The Master of Education program began in 1983 and was replaced by the Master of Arts in Teaching program in 1992. The Master of Science in Nursing program was added in 1998 and the Master of Arts in Organizational Communication program was added in 1999.

In 1979, the traditional undergraduate liberal arts college at Queens was named the College of Arts and Sciences. Also, in 1979 New College was inaugurated as a co-educational undergraduate evening program designed for working adults. In 1987, the College of Arts and Sciences became fully co-educational and, in 1989, adopted the innovative Foundations of Liberal Learning program which is now known as the Core Program in Liberal Arts. The International Experience Program, now known as the John Belk International Program, was established in 1989. The Hugh L. McColl Jr. School of Business was established in 1993 to unify and strengthen the college’s programs in accounting and business administration. In 1995, the New College was renamed the Pauline Lewis Hayworth College.

Within the overall purpose of Queens College, the goals of Hayworth College are to provide undergraduate and graduate education within a liberal arts framework, and opportunities for continuing education, to non-traditional students in the Charlotte community.

Undergraduate Programs
Hayworth College offers evening and weekend classes leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree with majors in American studies, business administration, elementary education, information systems, English, human and community services, organizational communication, psychology, and radiologic technology; and to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. Classes meet one evening each week or on weekends, with the exception of nursing classes which meet primarily during the day.

Graduate Programs
Graduate programs provide advanced, specialized education which prepares students for professional careers. They also seek to develop personal and professional values that are necessary for responsible citizenship. Graduate Programs in Hayworth College lead to the Master of Arts Degree in Organizational Communication, the Master of Arts in Teaching in Elementary Education, post-baccalaureate teacher certification, and the Master of Science in Nursing.

Queens College is located on a wooded campus in the Myers Park area of Charlotte. Its Georgian buildings, many of them constructed in 1914 when the college was moved to this site, have been extensively remodeled. The architectural motif of red brick with white trim has been incorporated in the more modern buildings. Principal buildings include the following: Burwell Hall (1914), the focal point of the campus, faces Selwyn Avenue. In addition to the admissions and administrative offices, the building houses the McInnes Parlors which provide a spacious reception area for guests and social events. Robert Burwell served as president of the Charlotte Female Institute from 1857 to 1872, and his wife, Margaret Anna Burwell, was a teacher and principal.
Belk Chapel (1950), was a gift to Queens by the families and associates of William Henry Belk and Dr. John M. Belk, in their honor. Greek revival in architecture, it is equipped with a 39-rank organ and seats 750. It is used for chapel and for other religious services and meetings. The Belk families have been loyal and generous supporters of the college.

Trexler Student Center (1993), honors long-time Queens trustee Charles B. Trexler and his children. Designed to be the "living room" of the college, the Trexler Center is located at the geographic center of the campus. It offers a living room, snack bar, game room, meeting room and a private dining facility - the Claudia Belk Dining Room. A stairway connects the Trexler Center with the post office and bookstore in the basement of Morrison Hall.

Morrison Hall (1927), includes the Frances Thompson Young Dining hall, which was completely renovated in 1999, a kitchen, the College post office, the College bookstore, ceramics and sculpture studios, and auxiliary rooms. The building is named for its donor, Mrs. Cameron Morrison, wife of a distinguished North Carolina governor.

E.H. Little Fine Arts Center (1966), contains the Charles A. Dana Auditorium, which seats 1,000 for concerts, recitals, plays and lectures. The center also contains the Suzanne Trezevant Little Recital Hall, an exhibition gallery, studios, practice rooms, classrooms for music and drama and music offices that include a library of music, miniature scores and recordings. Major donors of this facility were prominent philanthropists E.H. Little and Charles A. Dana.

Jernigan Building (1914), houses classrooms, the Business Office, the Registrar’s Office, the Financial Aid Office, the student bank and the Office of Student Development. Dr. Charlton Coney Jernigan was president of Queens from 1951-53.

John H Sykes Learning Center (2000), is named in honor of Mr. John H. Sykes, a member of the Board of Trustees and a generous benefactor of the College. The building is home to the McColl School of Business and is used by the entire campus for classroom, meeting and event space. The building contains a 214-seat auditorium, 8 classrooms, 8 meeting rooms, 8 faculty offices and a student lounge.

Dana Building (1961), honors Charles A. Dana, a generous benefactor of Queens College. The Dana Building contains classrooms, the DeWitt Computer Classroom, and faculty offices.

McEwen Hall (1914), was renovated in 1989. The building, named for the late Dr. Mildred Morse McEwen, alumna and professor emeritus of chemistry, includes classrooms, faculty offices, and the International Experience Office.
Ovens Athletic Center (1954), includes a large gymnasium, classrooms, a dance studio, a weight room and a swimming pool. Extensive renovation and remodeling took place in 1989 with the expansion of Queens’ athletic programs. David Ovens, business executive and merchant, was a Queens trustee and benefactor.

Walker Science Building (1966), contains laboratories, classrooms, faculty offices and research facilities for biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics. It also houses Queens’ Computing Services Center. The building was named for Dr. Edwin R. Walker, a former president of the college.

Watkins Hall (1914), houses the art department and exhibition galleries. It is named for Miss Mildred C. Watkins, member of the faculty from 1895-1909.

Student Health & Wellness Center (1958), provides seven hospital beds and rooms for consultations and treatment. It was a gift of Thomas M. Belk and his wife, Katherine McKay Belk, honoring Dr. John R. Irwin, Dr. Henderson Irwin and Dr. Hamilton W. McKay.

Residence Halls

Albright Residence Hall (1964) is named in honor of Miss Thelma Albright, former dean of students and a long-time faculty member at Queens.

The William H. Barnhardt Center (1965), a dormitory facility, honors Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barnhardt. Mr. Barnhardt, a prominent and devoted supporter of the College, was a member of the Board of Trustees.

Belk Residence Hall (1954) honors the late Mrs. William Henry Belk, alumna, trustee and benefactor. The hall was a gift to Queens from Mrs. Belk’s sons and daughter.

Hayes Residence Hall (1914) is named for Queens alumna and Board Trustee Mariam Cannon Hayes ‘37. The Lily Long Lobby in Hayes Hall is named for Miss Lily W. Long, who served the College for half a century and was president from 1891-1899.

South Residence Hall (2001) is Queens’ largest residence hall, and houses the fitness center.

Wallace Residence Hall (1962) honors Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wallace and family. Mrs. Wallace was an alumna, and J. Mason Wallace Jr. was a College trustee.

Other buildings immediately adjacent to the campus include Harris House, the home of Continuing Education, and Withers House.

Other buildings on the campus are named for Dr. Elizabeth H. Blair, former dean of instruction; Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Stultz, donors; and Miss Laura A. Tillett, professor emeritus of English. These buildings are used for administrative and instructional purposes.
Everett Library (1960), located at the center of the campus, was built through the generosity of Herschel Hill Everett, chairman of the board of trustees from 1952-67, and his wife, Cornelia Nisbett Everett. A new Georgian-style facade was constructed in 2000, thanks to a gift from Mr. John H. Sykes, a member of the Board of Trustees.

The library collection - the core of the academic community - is designed to support all programs of the college. More than 118,000 books and bound periodicals and 25,000 U.S. government documents are available in open stacks for student use.

In addition, the library currently subscribes to over 600 periodicals and retains The New York Times on microfilm from 1910 to the present and The Wall Street Journal from 1987 to the present.

The collection, which grows at a rate of 2,000 volumes a year, receives additional support from endowments established by the Friends of the Library. The library’s catalog is online and is available on the campus network. The library provides access to the internet and the World Wide Web, and offers instruction in the use of these resources.

The Margaret Louise Chapman Instructional Media Center is located on the lower level of the library. Donated by the Friends of the Library in 1982, it is a full-service media center with equipment and facilities for the production and use of audio and video materials.

Also on the lower level is the Curriculum Resource Center, which houses the Education Division’s collection of state-adopted textbooks and other materials for classroom use.

Students have free access to the stacks and may receive instruction in the use of the library at any time. The library encourages use by Queens students, faculty and staff, alumni, Friends of the Library, ministers of the supporting presbyteries and other individuals with special permission.

Everett Library has been enriched by its Friends of the Library organization. Founded in 1971, this community group hosts popular, annual "book-and-author" events; contributes significantly to the interior decor of the building; funds the Browsing Collection; and has established a Special Collections Room in memory of Rena C. Harrell, Queens’ first librarian. This special room houses a collection of Charlotte imprints, books on the history of Mecklenburg County and materials relating to the history of Queens College. Thanks to an anonymous gift received in April 1994, the library has the SIRSI Automated Catalog System.
Student Services

Athletic Facilities  Hayworth College students with student ID’s may use the swimming pool and tennis courts. Open hours for pool use are posted each semester. Tennis court access cards are available from the physical education office during fall and spring terms only. A deposit is required. For more information, contact the physical education office.

Campus Police  The Campus Police Department was established to maintain a safe environment for the college community. Officers with the department are commissioned Campus Police Officers by the Attorney General of North Carolina and have full police powers on campus. Officers patrol the campus 24 hours a day and are on duty year round, including holidays. The Chief of Campus Police not only has responsibilities for police and security functions, but also enforces all safety and fire regulations on campus.

Career Development Center  The Center for Career Development provides various personal and group services to Queens students and to members of the community. The center offers individual and group career management services as well as job search consultations. Students are encouraged to use the Career Resource Center which includes information about careers and graduate/professional schools, as well as employment listings for full-time and part-time jobs. Private appointments are available. Queens’ Center for Career Development is located in the Blair House.

Computing Services  Computing Services for both academic and administrative users are coordinated by the staff of the Computing Services Center, located in the basement of Walker Science Building. The Computing Services Center houses the IBM AS/400 central processor and control center for the college’s integrated administrative software system and high capacity fiber optic network. This center and network provide distributed computing capabilities to all administrative offices of the college, support for the college’s admissions tele-counseling center and library’s automated operations, as well as access to the Internet for faculty, students, administrators and staff. Faculty members, administrators and staff also have access to individual personal computers with software appropriate to their needs. Student access to computers on campus is provided through the following facilities:

The Dickson Microcomputer Lab  The lab is located in the basement of the Walker Science Building, adjacent to the Computing Services Center. This lab has 20 IBM-compatible 386/486-level personal computers with color monitors. Each PC has network access to the Internet and student E-mail accounts. Available software includes both DOS and Windows operating systems and related application software including DOS Wordperfect and Word for Windows, Excel, and MS Works. The lab also includes a mixture of dot matrix and deskjet printers. The lab is used to support academic courses and serves as a resource for faculty and students. The lab is staffed during primary usage times each day and is open on request 24 hours per day when classes are in session.

The DeWitt Computer Teaching Lab The lab is located on the third floor of the Dana Building. This lab is used exclusively for classroom teaching and is equipped with 22 Pentium 133 personal computers with color monitors and with network and Internet links. The lab is also equipped with interactive teaching capabilities.

The Science Computing Lab and Chemistry Computing Lab Both labs are located in the Walker Science Building. The Science Lab is used by science and mathematics classes and is equipped with one Pentium and five PCs running science and math application and modeling software. The Chemistry Lab has one PC used for chemical modeling.

The Writing Lab The Writing Lab is located in the McEwen Building. This lab has four PCs equipped with word processing software and printers and is used to enhance student writing skills.

The Psychology Lab The Psychology Lab is located in the McEwen building. This lab has a combination of Apple Macintosh and IBM compatible PCs, including a PC with SPSS statistical analysis software.

Curriculum Resource Center Lab The lab consists of 8 Macintosh computers and is located in the basement of Everett Library. These systems, equipped with 16 megabytes of RAM, Mac System 7.5, required software for education majors and printer support, are connected to the Internet.

Counseling Services Queens has professional counselors on staff in the Health Center who are available for appointment by calling 337-2220. All counseling services are confidential. Hayworth College students may make an appointment for information and/or referral to off-campus counseling services. There is no charge for this appointment. The cost of any off-campus therapy to which a student is referred is the responsibility of the individual student.

Dining Hall Morrison Dining Hall is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Students may purchase a single dinner ticket at the door or a packet of ten dinner tickets from the office in Morrison Dining Hall. These tickets may be used at any dinner during the semester. Dining Hall hours are posted each semester.

Emergency Telephones Telephones are located in each of the parking areas and buildings on campus. These should be used by persons requesting assistance or in need of help from Campus Police at 337-2306.
Escorts Persons may call 337-2306 or come by the Campus Police Office and request an escort to or from the parking lots. This service is available 24 hours a day. Please keep in mind that it might take a few minutes to give you the assistance because of other duties or emergencies that may arise.

Medical Services The Health & Wellness Center is available to care for the routine medical needs of students. All resident students must have a health form on file. All commuters who plan to use the health services also must have a health form completed by their physician and on file in the Health & Wellness Center. The staff may be unable to treat a student who does not have a health form on file. Hayworth College students may receive tetanus immunizations at the Health & Wellness Center for a nominal charge.

Parking Permits A student parking permit is available from the Hayworth College Academic Affairs office located in Burwell 101. The permit is valid for one academic year and allows the student to park in assigned lots and unrestricted zones during times indicated in the Queens College Rules and Regulations Handbook. Cars parked on campus without permits will be ticketed.

Post Office A full-service post office is located adjacent to the bookstore in the lower level of Morrison Hall.

Student Government Association (SGA) The Hayworth College SGA, organized in 1981, is the formal means of student involvement in the operations and activities of Hayworth College. Representatives are elected each fall by the student body and serve as liaisons between students, faculty and administration. Officers of the SGA may be asked to serve on Hayworth College Judicial Committees.

Student Identification Cards Student ID cards are recommended for all Queens College students, including graduate and Hayworth College students. The Campus Police Office in Stultz Building provides picture ID cards free for adult students. An ID card is valid for the academic year. ID cards are required to check out books in the Library and to use the Dickson Microcomputer Lab after hours.

Student Store The Queens College Student Store, located in the basement of Morrison Hall, sells textbooks, academic supplies, clothing, beverages and some snack foods.

Tutoring Center The Tutoring Center is located on the first floor of McEwen Building. Assistance is available with both writing and mathematics, and other courses as available. Evening appointments are available. There is no charge for the tutoring center services.

Trexler College Center The Trexler College Center, which adjoins Morrison Dining Hall and is connected by a stairway to the post office and bookstore, offers a living room, snack bar, game room, television lounge and facilities for meeting and studying.
Computing Services

Computing Services. Computing Services for both academic and administrative users is coordinated by the staff of Queens Computing Services, which is located in the basement of Walker Science building. Computing Services houses the IBM AS/400 midrange computer to support the College’s integrated administrative software system. In addition, Pentium-level file servers running Novell Netware 4.1 and Microsoft NT Server 4.0 are available to support the campus network with services such as e-mail and Internet access. The campus network environment is comprised of a switched thumed fiber optic backbone. Distributed computing capabilities are provided to all administrative offices including support for the College’s admissions telecounseling center, and network support for the library’s IBM RS600 which provides library automation services.

Faculty members, administrators and staff also have access to individual personal computers with software appropriate to their needs, either resident on each PC’s local hard drive or access through the campus network. Student access to computers on campus is provided through the facilities described below:

The Dickson Microcomputer Lab is located in the basement of the Walker Science building, is equipped with 20 Pentium computers with 128 megabytes of RAM. All computers are set up with Windows 98 and are connected to the campus network and the global Internet. Software installed includes Netscape Web Browser, Microsoft Office, and course specific software. A high speed HP5si laser printer is available for print output.

The DeWitt Computer Teaching Lab located in Dana Building room 312, is a classroom lab of 22 Dell Pentium 133 computers with 16 megabytes of RAM. These computers are set up with Windows 95, Microsoft Office, Netscape Web Browser, and Pegasus e-mail and are connected to the campus network and global Internet. A high speed HP5si laser printer for printed output and an Epson high resolution screen projection device for the instructor’s PC are also available. This facility provides a technology enhanced classroom for courses in information systems and computer instruction.

Language Lab A classroom lab consisting of 12 Dell Pentium 133 computers with 32 megabytes of RAM is available for foreign language students in the library. These systems are equipped with headsets and sound cards for use in language studies. This lab is connected to the campus network as well as the global Internet. An HP6P laser printer is available for printed output.

The Learning Center The lab is equipped with three Pentium100 PCs with Windows 95 and Microsoft Office, is located on the first floor of the McEwen building.
Faculty/Staff Lab  Computing facilities for faculty and staff use are available in Computing Services in the basement of Walker Science Building. Items available for use include a Pentium III computer with 128 megabytes of RAM, a high speed HP5si laser printer, a color Deskjet printer and a Microtek 32-bit color scanner. A Scantron reader is also available. Software includes Microsoft Office and Adobe Photo Delux.

Curriculum Resource Center Lab  The Resource Center Lab consists of 8 Macintosh computers and is located in the basement of Everett Library. These systems, equipped with 16 megabytes of RAM, Mac System 7.5, required software for education majors and printer support, are connected to the Internet.

Public Records (Directory Information)  The following information on individual students is considered Directory Information and is public: full name, local address, home address, telephone number, date of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance at Queens College, class year, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized college activities and student organizations, parents’ names, class schedules, and religious affiliation. This public information may be released or published without the student’s consent. However, it is the policy of Queens College to refuse to release information to private firms or mailing lists.

Directory Hold  Students who do not wish this information made public may inform the Registrar’s Office, requesting a "Directory Hold" in writing, within 10 days after registration each term. The Registrar will notify other college offices of such requests. Students should understand that if they withhold directory information, it will not be released to anyone unless the health or safety of an individual is involved. Requests for student data from agencies such as HEW, OEO, and research agencies may be honored without prior approval of the student, ordinarily in anonymous form.

Confidential Records  All personally identifiable material on particular students used to make decisions about students or used for transmittal to others outside the college and which is other than public material, as defined above, is considered confidential. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following items: academic evaluations, advising records, disciplinary records, financial aid records, letters of recommendation, medical or health records, clinical counseling records, transcripts, test scores, and other academic work.

Official Records  Official records are released only with the written permission of the student. Official records include material on students relating to their status as students held by any office of the College and intended for the use of the College or available to parties outside the college.
Official records do not include the following: letters of recommendation for which the student has waived the right of access, public safety records, medical and clinical counseling records, financial records of parents, private records kept by individual faculty or administrators as aids to memory but not intended for transmittal to others.

Access to Official Records Queens College, in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, permits students to inspect their records whenever appropriate and to challenge specific parts of them as necessary. Each enrolled or former student of Queens College has the right to inspect and review official educational records or files of the college directly relating to that student. (Note: Files on individual students are retained for five years after the student leaves the college. Only the transcript is kept indefinitely.)

Student access to official educational records or files directly relating to the student is provided in the presence of a staff member. The permanent academic record (transcript) will not be allowed outside the Registrar’s office. The right to access does not extend to applicants, those denied admission, or those admitted who do not enroll. Offices may require that requests for access be submitted in writing and may ask for, but not require, the reason for the request. A copy of a student's transcript and/or other recorded data will be made available to college officials who show legitimate educational needs without written permission of the student. Records will be kept in offices whose functions require such information.

A student is entitled to an explanation of relevant information contained in official records. The student has the right to a hearing to challenge the content of an official record to ensure that it does not contain information which is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of privacy or other rights, and to correct or delete inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate material.

Records of Progress The college maintains records of progress on both veteran and non-veteran students. Progress records are furnished to all students at the end of each scheduled academic term.

Record of Immunization Students enrolled in more than four credit hours and who are taking any classes which begin before 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, are required to provide valid documentation of immunizations to be compliant with North Carolina state law. Forms for this purpose are available from and are kept on file in the Irwin-McKay Health Center.

PAYMENT REGULATIONS

Upon signing the registration form, the applicant accepts as binding all fees and regulations set forth in the Catalog:

1. Tuition and fees, less financial aid awarded, are due and payable at registration. Payments are accepted via check, cash, MasterCard, or Visa.
2. Students who do not wish to pay in full at the beginning of each term may be interested in the following programs offered by Queens College.
   (a) Installment plan Payment for fall term may be made in four equal installments with the first payment payable at registration, and then by the 25th of September, October and November. Payment for spring term may be made in four equal installments, with the first payment payable at registration and then by the 25th of February, March and April. Summer term payments may be made in three installments with the first payment payable at registration and then by June 25th and July 25th. An enrollment fee of $45 is incurred each term tuition is deferred under this plan. A late-payment penalty is incurred if an installment is not paid by the due date. The College reserves the right to deny participation in this plan to students on the basis of their payment history with the College. Credit card payments may be made either by calling the Business Office each month or submitting a credit card authorization form monthly. Credit cards will not be automatically processed monthly.
(b) Unsecured educational loans. A variety of student and parent loans are available. For information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at 704.337.2225. For students who have applied for a student loan, but the loan has not been approved (guaranteed) by the lender, Queens College requires a payment equaling 1/3 of their tuition and fees, less any other scholarships and financial assistance, payable at registration. Credit balances created by loan funds being posted to the student's account will be issued (via check) to the student no later than 14 days after the college receives the money from the lender.

(c) Employer Assistance Deferment Plan

The Employer Assistance Plan (EAP) is a deferment plan available to students whose employer will reimburse them for tuition at the end of a term. Under this plan, tuition for fall term is due by January 30, spring term by June 10, and summer term by September 21. Students wishing to apply for this plan must submit the EAP application form to the Business Office as soon as possible, but no later than four weeks into the term. These forms are available in the Business Office. A deferment fee, payable upon registration, is incurred each term tuition is deferred under this plan - $50 for the first course and $25 for each additional course. A late-payment penalty is incurred if a payment is not made by the due date. The College reserves the right to deny participation in this plan to students on the basis of their payment history with the College.

3. A student is not permitted to attend classes until satisfactory arrangements have been made to meet all financial obligations. Continued class attendance is contingent upon maintaining good financial standing with the College throughout the term.

4. Participation in graduation and receipt of diplomas, certificates, and transcripts are issued only when the student’s accounts have been paid in full.

5. A refund of tuition will be issued to students only for a class that is officially Dropped during the first 10 class days of the term. There is no refund of the registration fee. For further information about the procedure to Drop a class, see Academic Regulations.
Withdrawal and Financial Obligations

The policies and procedures below apply to Hayworth College graduate and undergraduate courses. Students who dual enroll in the College of Arts and Sciences must follow that college’s schedule, calendar, and financial policies and procedures. Additional information is available in the Business Office.

DROPPING A COURSE
When a course is dropped during the Drop/Add period there is no record of that registration, and no tuition is charged for that course. The drop and add period is limited. To drop or add a Hayworth College course the student must contact the Hayworth College Office or Registrar’s Office and complete the appropriate form. After the drop/add period has ended, a student leaving a class must formally withdraw from the course in order to receive a status of “W.”

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE
There is no refund of tuition for withdrawal from an individual course unless the withdrawal results in zero enrolled credit hours.

WITHDRAWAL FROM ALL CLASSES/ FROM THE COLLEGE

Withdrawal-Academic Ineligibility A student determined by the Student Qualifications Committee to be academically ineligible to return will receive a refund if the student has made payments or has a credit balance toward the next term’s tuition and fees. Such decisions are made at the end of each term.

Withdrawal-Illness Students who withdraw from all classes during the term as a result of illness will have tuition prorated as of the date of withdrawal, provided the physician recommends withdrawal in a letter to the Registrar’s Office.

Withdrawal - Other Reasons Students who withdraw from the college or drop all courses within the first 60% of the term, effectively leaving the college, will have tuition prorated.

Exceptions Students who feel that individual circumstances warrant exceptions to this policy may appeal to the Financial Policies Committee, provided such appeal is made in writing to the Treasurer before the end of the term for which the proration is requested.

Withdrawal involving financial aid If the College determines that the student is due a refund and all or part of the student’s institutional charges were paid with financial aid funds, all or a proportional part of the total refund must be returned to the appropriate programs. If there is a balance due to Queens College as a result of these refunds, the student will be responsible for payment.
The amount to be returned will be determined according to the formula established by federal law. In accordance with federal regulations, Queens will credit refunds to financial assistance programs in the following order:

1) Outstanding balances on Federal Family Education Loan Programs (including Stafford and PLUS)
2) Federal Pell Grants
3) Federal SEOG Awards
4) Other Title IV Programs
5) North Carolina Programs
   Note: In order for a student to keep any portion of the North Carolina Legislative Tuition Grant, the student must have been enrolled full-time as of October 1 or the tenth class day of the spring term.
6) Queens College Programs

A detailed worksheet of the refund policy, available in the Office of Financial Aid, is provided to students upon request.
As a private institution that places the quality of the educational experience above other considerations, Queens realizes that the cost of attending college is a matter of overriding importance for many families. Applicants should not hesitate to apply for financial assistance. Queens will attempt to meet the financial need of applicants and welcomes the opportunity to work with students. Although most awards are based on financial need, some aid is based on the academic and leadership abilities of applicants, whether or not they have demonstrated need.

FEDERAL PROGRAMS

Federal Pell Grants are available to eligible undergraduate students on the basis of financial need. The grants range from $400 to $3,750 per academic year. A student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine the amount for which the student is eligible.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG) are available on an annual basis to full-time undergraduate students with exceptional financial need. These grants range from $100 to $1,000 and priority is given to Federal Pell Grant recipients.

Federal Stafford Loan eligibility is determined by the Office of Financial Aid. Loans are made by banks, credit unions, savings & loan associations and other agencies. Annual loan limits for independent students are $6,625 for freshmen, $7,500 for sophomores, $10,500 for juniors and seniors, and $18,500 for graduate students. Two types of Stafford Loans are available: subsidized Stafford Loans (need-based loans on which the federal government pays interest during enrollment) and unsubsidized Stafford Loans (non-need-based loans on which the borrower pays interest during enrollment). Terms of the loans and applications may be obtained from participating agencies or from Queens’ Office of Financial Aid. Students must complete a FAFSA to determine eligibility for Stafford Loans.

The amount of funds available to Queens’ students under the FSEOG Program is determined by allocations made to the College each year by the US Department of Education. All federal programs are subject to revision of funding or regulation by congressional action. Students are encouraged to contact the Office of Financial Aid for the most up-to-date information on these programs.

NORTH CAROLINA PROGRAMS

(UNDERGRADUATES ONLY)

North Carolina Legislative Tuition Grants (NCLTG) are available to North Carolina residents pursuing their first bachelor’s degree who are enrolled for at least 12 credit hours per term. For 2001-2002 the NCLTG is $1,800.
The State Contractual Scholarship Fund is provided to Queens College by an act of the North Carolina General Assembly. Scholarships are available to at least half-time undergraduate students who are legal residents of North Carolina. This fund assists qualified students who demonstrate need.

The North Carolina LEAP Program (formerly the State Student Incentive Grant) provides grants up to $1,500 per academic year for eligible students who are North Carolina residents. Recipients must demonstrate substantial financial need and apply by completing the FAFSA and mailing it before March 15. Awards are determined by The College Foundation of North Carolina.

UNDERGRADUATE/GRADUATE A-LEVEL LICENSURE
The North Carolina Prospective Teachers Scholarship Loan Fund awards scholarships in the amount of $2,000 for each academic year. The criteria for awarding scholarships are measures of academic performance, including grade-point average, scores on standardized tests, class rank and recommendations of guidance counselors. Teaching in North Carolina public schools upon graduation allows cancellation of the loan at a prescribed amount per year of service. Application should be made to the State Department of Public Instruction in Raleigh, North Carolina. Further information is available in the Office of Financial Aid.

All state programs are subject to revision of funding or regulation by the North Carolina General Assembly.

QUEENS COLLEGE PROGRAMS
Karl and Anna Ginter Fellowships are available to new degree candidates enrolling in Hayworth College as an undergraduate student. Students are selected during the application process based on academic promise, personal achievement, leadership potential, and character. Fellowships range from a $300 honorarium to a maximum of $1,000 annually. Fellowships are renewable each year if the fellowship recipient takes a minimum of 12 credit hours per year and maintains a cumulative grade point average of 3.0. The number of awards varies per year depending on the availability of funding.

Pauline Lewis Fellowships are available to new degree candidates enrolling in Hayworth College as an undergraduate student. Students are selected during the application process based on demonstrated potential for academic success and campus leadership. Each Lewis Fellow will receive $1,000 in scholarship assistance annually. Awards are renewable each year for a four-year period. The number of awards varies per year depending on the availability of funding.

The James D. Vail III Scholarship was established in 1989 to recognize students who have distinguished themselves academically and/or professionally. Selection is merit based and is made by the nursing faculty based on the following criteria: at least 25 years old; qualified or accepted into the undergraduate nursing major or graduate nursing program; GPA of at least 3.0 for undergraduates, 3.5 for graduate students; completed at least 12 credit hours in the year prior to consideration; abides by the Queens College Honor Code; able and willing to represent the College in a favorable way in the community; able and willing to be helpful in recruiting new students; leadership; and outstanding character.

The Carolyn M. Jones Scholarship was established in 1992 in honor of Dr. Carolyn M. Jones, Chair of the Division of Nursing from 1982 to 1992. This award is a merit award, not need-based. Selection will be made by the nursing faculty based on the following criteria: senior status nursing major (undergraduates), or 12 credit hours completed in the MSN program; effective team member; quiet leader among students; great interpersonal skills with all groups; non-judgmental; love of learning for learning’s sake; and altruistic.

The Maurice B. Landers Scholarship was established in 1997 to recognize students who have distinguished themselves academically and/or professionally. It is a need-based award. Selection is made by the nursing faculty based on the following criteria: at least 25 years old; qualified for or accepted into the undergraduate nursing major or the graduate nursing program; grade point average of at least 3.0 for undergraduates, 3.5 for graduate students; completed at least 12 credit hours in the year prior to consideration; abides by the Queens College Honor Code; able and willing to represent Queens College in a favorable way in the community; able and willing to be helpful in recruiting new students; leadership; outstanding character; and demonstrated financial need.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

To be considered for need-based financial assistance, students must have been admitted to Queens as degree candidates and must complete and submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The form is available from the Queens College Office of Financial Aid.

A copy of the student’s (and family’s if applicable) federal income tax return, as well as other documentation, may be required for verification purposes. Applications for financial aid should be submitted by entering students as soon as possible prior to their first term of enrollment.

FINANCIAL AID POLICIES

The Student Qualifications Committee evaluates students’ progress and determines eligibility for continuing enrollment, according to the standards outlined in the “Student Qualifications" section of this Catalog. Students receiving financial aid funds must meet these minimum standards. Standards for satisfactory academic progress are listed below.
Since renewal of need-based financial aid is not automatic, students must reapply for assistance each year by completing the Renewal FAFSA provided to them by the US Department of Education. The amount offered in grants and loans also may vary from year to year.

Withdrawal and Financial Aid
Financial Aid recipients who withdraw during the school year and are due a refund under the established Queens refund policy must return an appropriate portion of the refund according to the policy entitled "Withdrawal-Financial Aid Policy" located elsewhere in this Catalog.

Modification of Awards
Queens College reserves the right to review and modify an offer of financial aid should the recipient receive aid from other sources.

Financial Aid Probation
The Student Qualifications Committees evaluate the progress of students at Queens and determine eligibility for continued enrollment according to the standards indicated under “Student Qualifications”. Students receiving Federal Title IV financial aid funds must meet these minimum standards. Statements of Academic Progress Standards are sent to all aid recipients with award notices and are available upon request from the Office of Financial Aid.

Students who fail to meet these minimum standards of academic progress will be placed on financial aid probation for a period of one academic term. During the probationary period, students may continue to receive financial aid, provided they are otherwise eligible. Students have this period to re-establish satisfactory progress. If, at the end of the financial aid probationary period, the student fails to re-establish satisfactory academic progress, they will no longer be eligible to receive financial aid until such time that the minimums standards are met.

Students placed on probationary or ineligible status may appeal such action to the Financial Aid Appeals Committee if they believe that extenuating circumstances prevented them from maintaining satisfactory academic progress. Such appeals should be in the form of a letter submitted to the Office of Financial Aid within two weeks of the end of the probationary period (end of exams) or notification of placement on probationary status. The letter should include an explanation of any unusual circumstances and supporting documentation. The Financial Aid Appeals Committee must respond to the appeal within two weeks from date of receipt. If the appeal is granted, the student's progress is assumed to be satisfactory and progress is then measured from the time of the granted appeal. If the appeal is denied, the required minimum grade-point average must be achieved at the student’s own expense. The decision of the Financial Aid Appeals Committee is final. Once the minimum standards have been achieved, the student is again eligible for financial aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy
This policy is applicable to all students receiving financial aid from the federal or state government or from Queens College. Evaluation of academic progress will be made at the end of the spring semester by the Office of Financial Aid. The academic year evaluated may include any combination of the prior summer, fall, and spring terms. Students must show progress toward completion of their degree requirements to continue financial aid eligibility. The financial aid eligibility timeframe for completion of a degree program cannot exceed 150 percent of the published length of the degree. For example, if your degree requires 120 credit hours to graduate, you are eligible to receive financial aid until you have attempted 180 credit hours. Repeated courses, course withdrawals, incomplete courses and course failures count as hours attempted but not completed. Additional time needed to complete the undergraduate or graduate degree beyond the maximums stipulated must be entirely at the student’s expense.

28 FINANCIAL AID

Transfer students are treated as first-year students for purposes of measuring the financial aid eligibility timeframe for completion of a degree program.

Undergraduate Programs

Hayworth College offers evening and weekend classes leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree with majors and minors in American studies, business administration, elementary education, information systems, English, organizational communication, and psychology, and classes leading to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. The Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in radiologic technology is available to the student who is certified by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Academic Responsibility While Queens College makes every effort to advise and counsel students on their academic programs and academic requirements, it is the student who is ultimately responsible for fulfilling all requirements for a degree. To assist the student with this responsibility, all academic plans and programs should be approved by the student’s advisor.

Academic Advising It is the student’s responsibility to schedule advising appointments with the designated academic advisor as often as necessary in order to plan course schedules for each term and to discuss current academic questions and problems.

Catalog of Entry A student must fulfill the degree requirements set forth in the catalog which is current when the student registers for his or her first course as a degree candidate in Hayworth College. Other academic regulations amended while a student is in course at Queens may well be deemed to apply regardless of the policies stated in the catalog of entry. Further, curricular exigencies or other circumstances may require the college to modify degree or major requirements from those at entry, and that right is reserved.
Earning Dual Degrees Simultaneously  A student may work toward two different degrees simultaneously provided that he or she earns different majors within the degrees and provided that he or she earns, at Queens, at least 30 additional hours beyond the 120 hours required for a single degree.

Eligibility To Pursue A Second Degree  Students who already hold an undergraduate degree, either from Queens or from another accredited institution, may seek a second degree provided it is in a different field from the first earned.

Adding A Second Major After Graduation  Queens College graduates who wish to add a second major within the same baccalaureate degree may do so. They should make application for readmission to the college, and must fulfill the requirements for the second major as stipulated in the catalog for the year of re-entry to Queens.

Dual Enrollment  A Hayworth College student may register for a course offered in the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS) on a space-available-basis. Hayworth College students who dual enroll in the CAS must follow that college’s procedures, including procedures for registration, drop/add, and withdrawal from a course, and will follow that college’s calendar, which usually varies somewhat from the Hayworth College calendar.

Transfers between Hayworth College and the College of Arts and Sciences  Students are admitted either to the Hayworth College or to the College of Arts and Sciences; admission is not transferrable. However, a student dismissed from either college is dismissed from all Queens College programs until readmitted.

A student may apply to transfer from the Hayworth College to the College of Arts and Sciences, or the reverse, after completing at least one term in the college of entry, provided that the student has earned a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 2.00 at Queens College and is not on any type of academic or social probation. A student who wishes to change colleges must apply to the Office of Admissions.

At a minimum, students must complete 30 hours of the residency requirement in the college to which they transfer and complete all of the graduation requirements of that college. Students may not earn a major or minor that is not offered in the college into which they transfer.

Admission and Dismissal  Students are admitted either to Hayworth College or to the CAS. However, a student dismissed from either college is dismissed from all Queens College programs until readmitted.
REGISTRATION
All students are expected to register at the time and place indicated on the schedule each term. The Hayworth College academic year consists of Term I (Fall), Term II (Spring), and Term III (Summer Term).

Course Load Adult students attending Queens while working full time typically carry from six to nine credit hours per term. Students who are enrolled in fewer than 12 semester hours in Term I or II are considered part-time students. Any student who wishes to take more than 16 hours should consult the academic advisor.

Class Attendance Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Specific attendance policies are set for each course by individual faculty members and should be printed in the syllabus or announced at the beginning of the term. It is the student's responsibility to know the attendance policy in a particular course. Faculty members may lower a student's grade for excessive or unexcused absences.

Drop and Add When a course is dropped during the Drop/Add period there is no record of that registration, and no tuition is charged for that course. A student who drops all courses at Queens College in his or her first semester of attendance will not have matriculated into the college. The drop and add period is limited. To drop or add a Hayworth College course the student must contact the Hayworth College Office or Registrar's Office and complete the appropriate form. After the drop/add period has ended, a student leaving a class must formally withdraw from the course in order to receive a status of “W.”

Withdrawal From A Course After the drop/add period has ended the student who does not wish to continue in a course, and cannot add another in its place, must Withdraw from the course. (See section on Withdrawal and Financial Obligations.) Withdrawal from a course is a different process from dropping a course. A student must contact the Hayworth College office or the Registrar's Office and complete the appropriate form to withdraw from a course. The student will receive a grade status of W if the student withdraws during the withdrawal period.

The deadline for withdrawal from a course is usually one calendar week after the mid-point in each term and is stated on the term calendar. After that date, a student must petition the Student Qualifications Committee for permission for late withdrawal. The Student Qualifications Committee, in consultation with the instructor involved, may deny or approve the request for late withdrawal. If the late withdrawal is approved, a status of “W” will be recorded on the transcript. (A student who simply stops attending classes will receive a grade of “F” for all courses.)

Withdrawal From The College A student who wishes to withdraw from the College on his or her own initiative should notify the registrar's office and complete the appropriate form. Upon withdrawal, all grades in progress will be recorded as “W”. (A student who simply stops attending classes will receive a grade of “F” for all courses.) The student must then reapply in order to return to the College.
Withdrawal By The College  If a student does not register for a course for two consecutive terms, including the summer term, the student will be administratively withdrawn from the College and considered an inactive student. An inactive student must apply to the admissions office for readmission, and will resume studies under the Catalog in effect at the time of readmission. The College reserves the right to require at any time the withdrawal of a student whose conduct or academic work is not considered satisfactory.

Leave Of Absence  Students may be granted a leave of absence for a number of terms not to exceed one calendar year. A request for a leave of absence should be sent in writing to the academic advisor. Students who return on the agreed-upon date re-enter the program with the same catalog of entry held at the time they left. Students who do not obtain a formal leave of absence, or those who do not return in the agreed-upon terms, shall be considered withdrawn from the College and will have to reapply to gain readmission.

Abandoning A Class  A student who does not withdraw from a course but simply stops attending will receive a grade of F for the course.

GRADUATION

Graduation Requirements  Students may receive a degree only after meeting all degree requirements, including a minimum grade point average of 2.000 in all work attempted at Queens College.

Declaration of Intent to Graduate  It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of progress toward the degree, and to file a completed Intent to Graduate form in the registrar’s office a year before the term in which the degree requirements will be completed. Declaration forms are available from the academic advisor and in the registrar’s office.

Commencement exercises  are held in May of each year for all graduates who have completed degree requirements in the previous summer and fall terms, and in the current spring term. The diploma is awarded at this time.
GRADING

Grade reports are sent to students at the end of each term. Queens uses the following system of grades and grade-point values per credit hour:

Grade Point Average  A student’s cumulative grade-point average at Queens is based solely on academic work at Queens, and is not affected by course credit earned at another institution. The grade point average is used to determine eligibility for graduation. It is calculated by dividing the total number of points by the total number of graded credit hours attempted.

Pass/No Record  Pass/No Record is a grading system designed to encourage students to explore new areas. Only elective courses may be taken on a P/N basis. A student may not take a proficiency, literacy, foundation, or major/minor course on a P/N basis without special permission. Students may take up to two elective courses per academic year, but no more than one course per term, on a P/N basis. Some courses are designated P/N for all students. Other courses may not be taken P/N by any students.

The grade of “P” is recorded when a student earns a grade of C- or better in the course. If a student earns a D+, D, or F, the “Z” designation is used on the student’s grade report. A “Z” differs from an F because it is not recorded on the student’s permanent academic record and is not counted in the calculation of the student’s cumulative grade-point average.

A student must request the P/N grade status at registration or during the drop/add period. However, the student who has begun a course with P/N can change to a regular graded basis until the date on the term calendar designated “last day to withdraw from a course”, usually one week after the mid-point of the semester. The student is responsible for requesting this change in writing from the Registrar’s Office prior to the deadline.
Pass/Fail  Pass/Fail is the grading system used for special course offerings including internships and the international experience study tours. The Grade of “P” is recorded when a student earns a grade of C- or better in the course. An F is recorded when the work is unsatisfactory. P/F differs from P/N in that F’s are recorded on the student’s permanent academic record, and are included in the calculation of the grade point average.

Incomplete Grades  The temporary grade of Incomplete (I) is given at the discretion of the instructor only when unusual circumstances make it impossible for the student to complete the course work by the end of the term. Students are responsible for arranging to complete such work. A grade of “I” must be changed to a letter grade by the specified deadline, usually the end of the second full week of regular classes of the following term. However, a student on academic probation who receives an “I” must complete the course work and receive a regular letter grade at least 48 hours prior to registration for the subsequent academic term. A grade of “I” automatically becomes an F if the student fails to make up incomplete work satisfactorily by the above deadlines.

Auditing Courses  With the consent of the Director of Hayworth College, a student may audit a course. Audit courses receive no credit, but do appear on college transcripts. Students must designate audit courses at registration. Drop/Add and Withdrawal procedures apply to audit courses. Auditors are expected to attend classes regularly. Students who wish to audit a course must have been admitted to the college. There is no reduction in tuition for auditing a course.

Repeating Courses  A student may elect to repeat a course if the student has earned the grade of F, or if the student has earned a D, D+ or C- and wishes to demonstrate mastery of the material. All entries remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record, and regular tuition and fees are charged for repeated courses.

If a D, D+, or C- was earned, the first grade will remain on the student’s record and will be the only grade figured into the student’s cumulative grade-point average. No additional credit will be awarded.

If an F was earned, both the F and the second grade will be figured into the student’s cumulative grade-point average.

In either case, a course may be repeated only once, either at Queens or at another accredited institution with the prior approval of the Dean of Hayworth College.

No more than two courses in the student’s major field may be repeated.
STUDENT QUALIFICATIONS
The faculty has established standards of satisfactory academic progress which are administered by its Student Qualifications Committee. At the end of each term this committee reviews the academic record of each student in academic difficulty.

Class Status  Students are assigned class status according to the number of credit hours earned. A freshman has earned from 0 to 23 credit hours. A sophomore has earned 24 to 51 credit hours. A junior has earned 52 to 89 credit hours. A senior has earned 90 or more credit hours.

Academic Probation and Dismissal  A student who has attempted nine or more credit hours at Queens and whose cumulative grade-point average falls below the levels for his or her class standing, shown above, will be placed on academic probation. However, a student who has a term grade point average below 1.000, or who fails to make academic progress, is also subject to probation or dismissal at any time.

- Enrollment Limitations  While on academic probation a may enroll in no more than 12 credit hours in any one term.
- Incomplete Grades while on Probation  A student on academic probation must have any Incomplete grades changed to a letter grade prior to registering for a subsequent term.
- Eligibility to Represent the College  Students on academic probation and students who are suspended from a class or from the college are not eligible to represent the college in off-campus extracurricular activities, to participate in varsity athletics, to hold campus office, or to run for campus office until the probation or sanction is lifted.
Students on probation will be reviewed at the end of the term, including summer term, in which they have attempted at least nine credit hours since being placed on probation or last reviewed. Students on probation will be removed from probation if, at the time of review, their cumulative grade point average has been raised to the minimum required for their class status. Students on probation who have earned a grade point average of 2.000 since their last review, but whose cumulative grade point average is still below the minimum required for their class status, may be continued on probation for one more term.

Admission on Probation. Students admitted on academic probation must meet the terms of probation set by their admission letter, which may vary, in order to be allowed to continue in the program.

Dismissal from the College Students on probation will be declared academically ineligible to return if, at the time of review, they have not earned a grade point average of 2.000 since their last review and have not raised their cumulative grade point average to the minimum required for their class status. Students have the right to present a written appeal concerning academic dismissal to the Student Qualifications Committee. The decision of the committee in regard to the appeal is final.

Readmission Following Dismissal Students dismissed from the college for academic reasons must apply for readmission through the Student Qualifications Committee. To be considered for readmission, a student must submit transcripts verifying that the student has earned at least nine graded semester hours (or the equivalent) since leaving Queens College, with a grade of C or better in each course attempted. Students applying for readmission must submit (1) a readmission application (available from the Hayworth Admissions Office), (2) transcripts from all colleges or universities attended, and (3) a personal statement concerning the student’s goals and accomplishments since leaving Queens. A student readmitted to the college is normally placed on academic probation and reviewed after the first term.
The Honor Code

The Honor Code of Queens College is at the heart of our commitment to integrity and academic freedom. The purpose of the Honor Code is to provide this community with an atmosphere of mutual trust among students, faculty, and administration. The Honor Code is binding on all members of the College community and applies to all phases of life at the College. Queens students are responsible for their personal conduct at all times and shall be subject to discipline, including possible suspension, for behavior that discredits themselves or the College. As a commitment to this system of honor, students are asked to sign the Honor Code as part of their application for admission. The Honor Code incorporates two different pledges of student conduct: the academic pledge and the community pledge. In addition, it embodies the individual's commitment to developing a community of honor, including taking action against those who violate the Honor Code:

As a member of the Queens College community, I will endeavor to create a spirit of integrity and honor for its own wake at Queens College. Academic Pledge: I pledge truthfulness and absolute honesty in the performance of all academic work. Community Pledge: I pledge to be truthful at all times, to treat others with respect, to respect the property of others, and to adhere to College policies. Accepting both the privileges and responsibilities of living by this code of honor, I resolve to uphold this code and not to tolerate any violations of its spirit or principles.

Violations of the Honor Code include, but are not limited to, cheating, lying, theft, and academic dishonesty. Two examples of the latter are plagiarism, the use of an other's words or ideas without giving credit to the source, and computer misuse, including accessing, transferring, or altering information without authorization. Suspected violations of the Honor Code by an undergraduate student should be reported to the Dean of Hayworth College, and will be heard by the Hayworth College Hearing Board. Suspected violations of the Honor Code by a graduate student should be reported to the Dean of Graduate Programs and will be dealt with by the Hayworth College Hearing Board.
Honors and Awards

Dean’s List  Each spring a Hayworth College Dean’s List is compiled naming those Hayworth College undergraduate degree candidates who qualified during the previous calendar year. For this purpose, the year begins in the spring term, and continues through the summer term, and concludes with the fall term. Degree candidates who have no outstanding incomplete grades and who have completed, during this time period, a minimum of 12 hours of college-level credit on a graded basis with a grade-point average of 3.500 or better in the hours during this time period, are eligible for the Hayworth College Dean’s List.

Honors at Graduation  Summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude honors are awarded by the college for academic excellence. A student must complete at least 60 hours at Queens to be eligible for graduation with honors. The grade-point average will be determined only by work taken at Queens. Summa cum laude is awarded to students who have a grade-point average of *3.850; magna cum laude is awarded to students who have a grade-point average of *3.650; and cum laude to students who have a grade-point average of *3.500.

Awards Convocation  A major convocation is held for Hayworth College students at the end of each academic year to honor academic excellence and service to the college. Each academic department presents an award to an outstanding graduating senior in the major. The College also recognizes those who have made the Dean’s List in the prior year, those who have received Fellowships and Scholarships, nominees to Who’s Who in American Colleges and Universities and other honors and awards.

Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges recognizes noteworthy student leaders on campuses throughout the country and registers them in a national collegiate publication. The students are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, participation in co-curricular activities and the promise of future contributions to those areas.
Honor Societies

Sigma Theta Tau  Mu Psi at Large is a chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International, the honor society of Nursing founded in 1922. Students who have completed at least half the nursing major and demonstrate superior academic achievement and leadership potential are invited to join.

Phi Alpha Theta  The Alpha Gamma Kappa Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the international honor society in history, was installed in 1985. A member of the Association of College Honor Societies, the Society promotes history through the encouragement of research and the exchange of learning and thought among historians. Juniors who have completed at least four history courses with a GPA of 3.100 or better, and an overall GPA of 3.000 or better for two-thirds of the remaining work completed, are eligible for candidacy for membership. Membership in Phi Alpha Theta is for life and is recognized by the U.S. Civil Service Commission as a credit qualifying for GS-7.

Delta Mu Delta  The Queens chapter of Delta Mu Delta, the national business honor society, installed in 1995. To be eligible for membership a student must be an undergraduate or graduate student registered in a program of business administration. Undergraduates must be candidates for the baccalaureate degree in business; have completed at least half the credits required for the degree; have a cumulative grade point average of 3.2 or better; be in the top 20 percent of their class, and be of good standing. Transfer students must have completed a minimum of 24 semester hours or its equivalent at the school where membership in Delta Mu Delta is to be conferred, and have an academic record which meets the society’s membership requirements. Graduate students must have completed at least half the requirements for the graduate degree with a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or better.

Alpha Sigma Lambda  The Theta Chi chapter of the Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society, the national honor society for students in continuing higher education, was installed in 1998. Alpha Sigma Lambda is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student’s career. Students must meet the following minimum requirements to be considered for membership: have earned a minimum of 30 semester hours in Hayworth College, with at least half of these credits in courses outside the student’s major field. Members shall be elected only from the highest ten percent of those students who meet these requirements. Those selected must have a minimum GPA of 3.2.
Psi Chi  The Queens College chapter of Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology, was chartered in 1998. The purpose of Psi Chi is to encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship and to advance the science of psychology. Membership is open to graduate and undergraduate men and women who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests.

Qualifications for membership include: sophomore or higher status, completion of 9 semester hours in psychology, registration as a psychology major or minor, an overall GPA of at least 3.000, a minimum GPA in psychology courses of 3.000, and approval of faculty and current Psi Chi members. Membership in Psi Chi is for life, and serves as an important springboard for professional growth.
Admission

Queens College welcomes students who wish to begin college for the first time, complete a first or second bachelor’s degree, or just take a particular course. Hayworth College recognizes that an adult learner’s previous academic performance often cannot predict his or her ability to be academically successful in the present. Motivated adult learners are therefore allowed to demonstrate their ability to succeed in the challenging academic environment at Queens, with continued enrollment contingent upon performance.

Applications for admission may be obtained by writing the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office, Queens College, 1900 Selwyn Avenue, Charlotte, North Carolina 28274, or by calling 704-337-2314, or by e-mail: hayworth@queens.edu.

Campus Visits  Students seeking information about the college are encouraged to visit the campus and the Hayworth Admissions Office located in Burwell Hall. The office is open from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 on Fridays. Appointments can be made outside of regular office hours by calling 337-2314.

International Students Hayworth College welcomes international students. All transcripts must be translated into English by an official at the school issuing the transcript. Any student for whom English is not the first language must satisfactorily complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a score of 550 or higher on the written test or 213 or higher on the computer-based test. Official scores must be submitted to the Admissions Office prior to admission.

Application Deadline While there are no deadlines for application, prospective students should apply for admission as early as possible. The Graduate & Adult Admissions Office will act on an application as soon as all required information has been received. The Registrar will evaluate the transcripts of accepted candidates only after all college transcripts have been received.
DEGREE SEEKING CANDIDATES
To be considered for admission as a degree-seeking candidate, prospective students must submit the following:
• evidence of a high school diploma or the equivalent,
• a written statement describing your reasons for attending Queens College; and
• two official academic transcript(s) from all colleges previously attended, and
• a completed application form and a $25 application fee.
• financial aid transcript(s) from all colleges attended, to be submitted to the Official of Financial Aid.
(See page 25 for Financial Aid information.)

SPECIAL/NON-DEGREE STUDENTS
A special student is admitted to the College without the expectation that he or she will earn a degree.

Special students who have never earned a bachelor’s degree may enroll for a cumulative total of no more than 15 credit hours, after which they must apply for regular admission as a degree candidate or receive special permission to continue enrollment at Queens. Special students must comply with all college regulations, and must maintain a "C" average to continue their enrollment.
To apply as a special student, the following materials are required:
• evidence of a high school diploma or the equivalent, or proof of most recently awarded degree;
• a completed application form and a $25 application fee.

TRANIENT STUDENTS
Transient students are degree candidates at another college or university taking courses at Queens by special arrangement, with the intention of transferring those courses back to their home school. Transient students must comply with all college regulations and must maintain a “C” average to continue enrollment.
To apply as a transient student, the following materials are required:
• a letter from the Registrar of the student’s home institution, verifying that the student is in good standing and has permission to take courses at Queens College,
• a completed application form and a $25 application fee.

HIGH SCHOOL DUAL ENROLLMENT
Any junior or senior in a Charlotte-Mecklenburg area secondary school may apply for admission as a special student in Hayworth College when recommended by the secondary school. Following graduation from high school, credit earned under the dual enrollment program can be applied toward a degree at Queens College or transferred to another institution. To apply, a letter of recommendation from the secondary school principal should be submitted to the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office along with the application, a $25 application fee, and a copy of the high school transcript.
LENGTH OF ADMISSION ELIGIBILITY

Acceptance into the college will remain effective for up to one calendar year following the commencement of the semester for which the acceptance has been made. Individuals who wish to enter after the one-year period are required to reapply. The admission decision will be based on the existing admission standards at the time of matriculation.

READMISSION AFTER AN ABSENCE

A student who has previously been admitted to the college but who has withdrawn or been administratively withdrawn in good standing and wishes to return may apply for readmission to the college. Materials required for admission include:

- a completed application form,
- two official transcripts from each college or university attended since leaving Queens College, and
- other materials not received or retained from previous admission records.

Students who are readmitted to the college are bound to the requirements of the catalog in effect during the term in which they matriculate. Students who were not in good standing at the time of their withdrawal from the college must apply for readmission to the Student Qualifications Committee.

ADMISSION OF UNDERGRADUATES TO GRADUATE STUDY

Special Permission  Seniors in Hayworth College or the College of Arts and Sciences with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5 or better may enroll in a graduate course at Queens subject to written approval, prior to registration, by the department offering the course. These graduate credit hours are not counted toward the 120 credit hours required for the baccalaureate degree, but may be counted toward the 45 hour residency requirement. The student who is subsequently admitted to a graduate program may request that these credit hours be included as part of the graduate program. A full-time student should take no more than 18 credit hours in any semester which includes a graduate course. A part-time student should take no more than 6 credit hours in any semester which includes a graduate course. All students will be charged the graduate program rate.

BA to Master of Arts in Teaching (BA-MAT) Program

This early admission to the master’s program allows the student to accelerate completion of both a bachelor’s degree and a Master of Arts in Teaching. Students admitted to the BA to MAT program may count 9 credit hours from the MAT program toward the 120 credits required for the bachelor’s degree. The bachelor’s and master’s degrees will be awarded simultaneously upon successful completion of all requirements for the MAT and the 9 credit hours earned in the teaching internship. Note: Only the 9 hours of the student teaching block will be counted toward the bachelor’s degree. Students who have earned at least 90 hours toward their bachelor’s degree, including all proficiency, foundation, and major requirements, may submit an application to the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office for admission to the BA to MAT program. After admission to the program the student may enroll in graduate courses while completing the undergraduate degree as the schedule permits. BA to MAT candidates must meet the same admission requirements for the MAT with the exception of having completed the bachelor’s degree.

RN to Master of Science in Nursing (RN-MSN) Program
Registered nurses in the Hayworth College BSN degree completion program may be eligible to apply for admission to the RN to MSN program. Applicants must be current undergraduate students in Hayworth College, must have been formally admitted to the Nursing major, and must have completed all undergraduate proficiency and foundation requirements, all BSN prerequisites, and NURS 300, 400, 401, and 402, prior to application to the program. Candidates for the RN-MSN program must meet all MSN admission requirements with the exception of having completed the BSN. All requirements for the BSN degree must be met with the exception of the 120 undergraduate hour requirement. RN to MSN students can receive their BSN after completion of the first nine graduate credit hours in the MSN program, including NURS614 and NURS626. Interested nurses should contact the RN advisor, Dr. Joan McGill, Chair of the Vail Program of Nursing for further information at 337-2295.

Queens College awards credit for academic courses taken at other colleges or universities, credit by examination as stipulated below, and credit for some certification and courses taken outside of the normal academic environment.

TRANSFER CREDIT
Transferring Credit for Courses Taken at Other Institutions
Prior to Admission to Queens
After the student has been fully admitted to the college as a degree candidate, the Registrar will evaluate transcripts from other colleges or universities. Credit will be awarded for each appropriate course, taken at properly accredited institutions, in which a grade of C or better was earned. Credit may also be granted for programs approved by the American Council on Education or PONSI. Official transcripts are required for evaluation. The student may be responsible for requesting course descriptions from the original institution if the college deems it necessary.

Advanced placement Students who have completed college-level work in their secondary schools should take the appropriate Advanced Placement (AP-) test administered by the CEEB. In most subjects, Queens grants advanced placement and course credit automatically if the student scores either 4 or 5 on such tests. International Baccalaureate (IB). Queens College will grant six semester hours of elective credit in each area in which a student has achieved a score of 5, 6, or 7 in a higher level examination. Assignment of specific course credit will be determined at the student’s request and the discretion of the individual department. Duplicate credit will not be awarded in the event both AP- and IB examinations are completed with acceptable scores. Total credit awarded will not exceed 30 semester hours.

Transferring Credit for Courses Taken at Other Institutions After Admission to Queens

Queens students may take courses at another accredited institution for credit at Queens provided that these courses are equivalent to or supplemental to those offered at Queens. In order to receive credit for a course taken at another accredited institution after admission to Queens, the student must (1) secure prior permission of the appropriate department and division chair, (2) earn a grade of C or better in the course, and (3) have the other institution send an official record of the coursework to the registrar at Queens College. A student’s cumulative grade-point average is not affected by course credit earned at another institution.

CREDIT FOR CERTIFICATION Thirty credit hours are accepted toward a major in radiologic technology for those persons certified by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. A copy of the student’s certification or proof of certification is required.

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION No more than 38 credit hours earned through examinations for credit may be applied towards the bachelor’s degree. Credit earned by examination may not be used to satisfy college residency requirements, or the final 30 hours required for graduation.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Queens College awards credit and/or advanced placement to students who score satisfactorily on approved subject-level tests of the College Level Examination Program. The CLEP essay portion must also be completed. Official scores must be submitted to Queens College. Students should obtain a list of approved CLEP exams from their Academic Advisor.

Validation Examinations Queens College offers validation or “challenge” examinations administered by the college for some courses for which there are no comparable CLEP tests, and awards credit for satisfactory scores. The examination may be based on assessment of writing, performance, product, and/or interviews. A fee is charged for the administration of each validation examination. Validation examinations are graded on a Pass/No Record basis. Students interested should discuss this with their academic advisor.
POLICIES CONCERNING PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

Residency Requirement  At least 45 of the 120 credit hours required for a bachelor’s degree must be earned at Queens College no matter how many hours are accepted in transfer, or are earned through examinations or certifications, unless the student already holds a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution. In this case, at least 30 of the 120 credit hours required for a degree must be earned at Queens College.

Maximum Credit from a Two-Year Institution  No more than 60 of the 120 semester hours required for graduation may be transferred from two-year institutions.

Transfer Credit and Graduation With Honors  It should be noted that only students who complete at least 60 credit hours at Queens College will be eligible for graduation with honors.

Calculating the Cumulative Grade-Point Average  A student’s cumulative grade point average is based solely on work at Queens College. Transferred credits from other institutions will not be calculated into the Queens GPA.

Hayworth College at Queens offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree and the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. While these programs differ from each other in significant ways, each is rooted in the tradition of liberal education and each provides students with an integrated and coherent program of study including the skills, competencies, and knowledge necessary for a meaningful and successful life.

Bachelor of Arts  A major for the Bachelor of Arts degree shall consist of no fewer than 30 credit hours. The majors leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree include American Studies, Elementary Education, Business Administration, Information Systems, English, Human & Community Services, Organizational Communication, Psychology, and Radiologic Technology.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing  Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree are required to meet all college requirements for graduation as well as the requirements for the nursing major. Applicants who have been accepted to the college must also apply to the Vail Program of Nursing for acceptance into the nursing major after meeting specified prerequisites. Students are encouraged to declare their interest in nursing by the end of their first year. Provision is made for those persons, such as registered nurses, who may wish to transfer into the program or apply for advanced standing.
Teacher Licensure  Hayworth College offers a North Carolina Class “A” teacher license in secondary education (grades 9-12) in English, which may be completed by taking evening/weekend courses in Hayworth College with the exception of the student teaching practicum. Teacher licensure may also be obtained as a part of the student’s baccalaureate program. If a student is also able to take courses through the College of Arts and Sciences’ day classes, it is also possible to obtain licensure; special subject (grades K-12) in French and Spanish; and secondary subject areas (grades 9-12) in mathematics, biology, history, and social studies.

All programs are approved by the North Carolina State Board of Education and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), allowing licensure reciprocity with other states.

Major Program  Each student must complete the requirements for a major in addition to completing the Proficiency and Foundation requirements below. The purpose of a major is to give the student an opportunity to achieve an appropriate level of mastery in a field of study. The requirements for each major are described below.

Minors/Concentrations  An undergraduate program of study may include minor in a department or departments other than the major, or a concentration within the major. The minor consists of a minimum number of hours and a prescribed program of courses described in detail under each discipline offering a minor.

Elective Courses  In consultation with the advisor, a student chooses elective courses to complete the number of hours required for graduation. Electives offer the student the opportunity to augment the major field of study with collateral areas of knowledge or to explore areas or skills quite distinct from the major.

Independent Studies and Directed Readings  Under the direction of a member of the faculty and with the approval of the academic advisor, students may undertake directed readings or an independent study of a topic of interest to the student and germane to the student’s program of study. This study may take one of several forms, including projects, individual research, or directed readings. To register for an Independent Study or Directed Reading course, the student must submit a course proposal form to the Office of Academic Affairs two months prior to the beginning of the term in which the student wishes to register. To initiate an independent study, the student should first confer with the Chair of his or her major department.
DEGREE REQUIREMENTS
To earn a baccalaureate degree a student must fulfill the following requirements.

- earn a minimum of 120 semester hours;
- meet the college’s residency requirements as stipulated below;
- earn the last 30 hours at Queens College or in a Queens approved program;
- earn at least 36 semester hours at the 300 or 400 level;
- participate in the college’s assessment evaluation, if requested, as stipulated below;
- be in good standing with the honor code at the time the degree is awarded;
- meet all proficiency, literacy, and foundation requirements, as stipulated below;
- meet all major requirements in at least one major, including the minimum stipulated number of semester hours in the major;
- earn at least 50 percent of the course work in the major at Queens;
- earn a minimum grade point average of 2.000 in all work in the major;
- earn a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.000 in all work attempted at Queens College;

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

Queens College Residency Requirement Every candidate for a first baccalaureate degree in Hayworth College must complete at least 45 of the minimum 120 semester hours required for graduation at Queens College. The residency requirement will be reduced from 45 to 30 credit hours for students who already hold an undergraduate baccalaureate degree from Queens College or another accredited institution and are seeking a second degree. These 30 credit hours must be over and above hours earned for the first degree.

Hayworth College Residency Requirement At least 30 hours must be completed in Hayworth College to graduate from Hayworth College.

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENT
Students are required to participate in a program of evaluation and assessment administered by the college to measure the effectiveness of a Queens education. This program will include both objective and reflective measurements offered from time to time during the student’s years at the college.
PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENTS

Writing Proficiency  A student must enroll in and successfully complete two composition courses, ENGL101 and ENGL102, in order to graduate. These courses must be completed in the first year at Queens.

Mathematics Proficiency  A student must successfully complete one 3-credit hour college level mathematics course, or place into Calculus I. A mathematics placement test is not required for Hayworth College students.

Computer Proficiency  A student must successfully complete or test out of ISYS 110, or transfer comparable course credit.

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENTS

A minimum of 31 credit hours of Foundation courses from the areas below must be earned for a Bachelor's degree in Hayworth College. A course which satisfies a major requirement may not also be used to satisfy a Foundation requirement. However, prerequisite courses to a major may be used to satisfy Foundation requirements. Majors in American Studies should choose foundation courses in non-American topics.

Area I: Natural Sciences  A student must earn at least seven credit hours in two approved science courses, at least one of which must be a laboratory science course carrying a minimum of four semester hours of credit. The natural science requirement may not be satisfied by credit earned at another institution except as transfer credit earned prior to admission to Queens.

Area II: Fine Arts  A student must earn at least three credit hours in the fine arts, chosen from art or music. Studio courses may not be applied to the fine arts requirement.

Area III: Humanities  A student must earn at least six credit hours in humanities, chosen from two of the following disciplines: History, Literature, and Religion/Philosophy.

Area IV: Social and Behavioral Sciences  A student must earn at least six credit hours in the social or behavioral sciences, chosen from two of the following disciplines: Psychology, Sociology, Political Science, or Macroeconomics.

Area V: International Issues  A student must earn at least three credit hours in a course designated as an International Issues course.

Area VI: General Education Electives  A student must earn at least six additional credit hours courses chosen from Foundation Areas I-IV above. The courses must be selected from different areas.
AMERICAN STUDIES

The Hayworth College American Studies major is an interdisciplinary field of study which leads to the Bachelor of Arts degree. Strongly based in the historical study of the culture of the United States, both past and present, the American Studies major explores the distinct characteristics of that which is considered “American” today. The program seeks to promote deeper understanding of forces influencing individuals and world society.

Students are encouraged to examine the factors shaping American civilization through flexible but interrelated study of a number of elective courses. These courses, drawn from such varied disciplines as economics, social sciences, literature, fine arts, and history, permit analysis and evaluation of the American experience from various perspectives. The major is designed to enable students to integrate the knowledge and research technology from related academic areas into a coherent whole.

The American Studies major is an excellent foundation for many occupations, professional careers, and graduate studies. Possible careers include business, public administration, law, and foreign service. Graduate degrees in American Studies are available at an increasing number of universities.

To earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in American Studies, a student must take at least 37 credit hours of courses in American history, arts, literature, and political and social sciences. Each student, in consultation with an advisor, carefully plans a total program of study designed to enable the graduate to take advantage of exciting new opportunities in the field. The student is encouraged to explore significant interrelationships among the various disciplines.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR IN AMERICAN STUDIES ARE:

- HIST203 The United States to 1877
- HIST204 The United States since 1877
- ENGL230 Survey of American Literature
- Two 300-400 level courses chosen from American history or American literature

- Two social sciences course in an American field chosen from political science, economics, sociology, or anthropology.
- AMST400 Special Projects, to be taken for 1, 2, or 3 credit hours
- Plus four additional electives in American Studies (12 hours)

Foundation Requirements Courses used as Foundation Requirements may not also be used toward the 37 hours required for the major. Foundation requirements should be selected from non-American course options to insure a broad and balanced education.
REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINOR IN AMERICAN STUDIES:

- HIST203 The United States to 1877
- HIST204 The United States since 1877
- ENGL230 Survey of American Literature
- One 300-400 level course chosen from American history or American literature
- One fine arts course in an American field chosen from art, music, or drama
- One social sciences course in an American field chosen from political science, economics, sociology, or anthropology.

At least 18 credit hours are required for the minor. Students who minor in American Studies may use a maximum of 6 credit hours of minor requirements to fulfill general education requirements.

THE McCOLL SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The McColl School of Business offers undergraduate courses that emphasize the concepts and skills needed to understand business practices, organizations and managerial responsibilities. The McColl School offers the following majors in Hayworth College: Business Administration, Business/Accounting, and Business/Marketing. Business majors lead to the Bachelor of Arts degree. A major in Business prepares students to understand the functional areas of business, human relations in organizations, and strategic policy-making issues. Majors outside the McColl School can complete a minor in business administration in Hayworth College.

To earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a Business major, a student must take at least 36 credit hours in Business Administration courses, 18 of which must be upper division work on this campus. Business majors are also required to complete a minimum of 48 hours of course work outside the McColl School.

Admission to the Major

The McColl School of Business requires that undergraduate students wishing to major in Business be admitted to the major prior to taking any upper level courses. Students in other majors may take upper level courses as long as they have the necessary prerequisite(s) for the particular course.

All candidates must make formal application to the Business major during or following the term in which all required prerequisite courses are complete.

Application requirements include:

1. Prerequisite checklist with supporting transcripts.
2. Application form.

The McColl School Undergraduate Student Admissions Committee reviews applications and notifies students of admission to the major. Acceptance to the major is based on a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and a grade point average of 2.5 in the prerequisite courses with at least a C- in all prerequisite courses.

EDUCATION

Obtaining a North Carolina Class "A" initial teacher license is possible through programs in elementary (K-6); and secondary subject areas (grades 9-12) in English. These programs are approved by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), allowing licensure reciprocity with other states. Teacher licensure may be obtained as part of the Hayworth student’s program. Students pursuing licensure in elementary education (K-6) should major in elementary education. Students pursuing secondary subject licensure (9-12) complete the appropriate major and gain licensure through a concentration in secondary education. At Queens College, the education of teachers is the joint responsibility of academic departments and the Education Division.

Division objectives state that the education of teachers is threefold: they receive liberal education, they pursue in depth their teaching specialties and they acquire the necessary professional knowledge and the skills needed in teaching. Objectives for each area of licensure are listed in the Teacher Education Handbook, available in the Education Division.

Admission to the teacher licensure program All students apply to the Education Division for admission to the teacher licensure program after earning at least 36 credit hours. To be accepted, a student must have:

- positive recommendations by three Queens faculty members
- an overall grade point average of 2.500 after 36 hours of course work
- satisfactory scores on the mathematics, reading and writing components of the Pre-Professional Skills (PPST) Praxis I Test
- approval of the Teacher Education Committee

Students may not take more than 50 percent of their professional education courses before being officially admitted to the Teacher Education Program.

Retention in the Program Retention in the program is based on the expectation that students demonstrate the characteristics of and conduct themselves as members of the teaching profession. Students may be removed from the program upon showing professional incompetence. A deficiency in one or more of the following areas is evidence of professional incompetence:

- knowledge of the subject
- ability to impart that knowledge
- the manner and efficacy of discipline in the classroom
- rapport with students, as well as parents, faculty, administration and staff
- physical and mental ability to perform the essential functions of a teacher
Professional incompetence may be grounds for dismissal from the program and failure to recommend students for licensure.

Admission to student teaching Students must apply for student teaching in the term preceding their planned student teaching semester. All professional course work must be completed before the student teaching semester. Minimum criteria for admission to student teaching are:

- a cumulative grade point average of 2.75
- recommendation by the major department
- approval of the Education Division and Teacher Education Committee

North Carolina testing requirements In addition to completing all program requirements, in order to be licensed in North Carolina, students must successfully pass any tests mandated by the state at that time. Completed information on current testing and application forms for the Praxis I and II may be obtained from the Education Division.

Competencies Licensure requires the achievement of competencies in areas designated by state and national accrediting agencies in general education, professional education, and teaching specialty.

ENGLISH

The study of English focuses on the various ways that human beings have sought to understand their lives and the world through the writing of stories, poems, essays, plays, and novels. The English major provides both an historical knowledge of the development of British and American literature and an understanding of the different forms and styles of literature. It develops skills in close reading, careful analysis, and forceful, articulate writing that are necessary for a broad range of careers. The English major also prepares students for law school or for graduate study in literature, composition theory, creative writing, and American studies. The English major leads to a Bachelor of Arts degree. A minimum of 36 hours in English are required.

COURSES REQUIRED FOR THE MAJOR IN ENGLISH ARE:

ENGL 200 Introduction to World Literature
ENGL 210 British Literature to 1600
ENGL 220 British Literature 1600 to the present
ENGL 230 Survey of American Literature
ENGL 460 Studies in Literature and Criticism

ENGL 324 Nineteenth Century American Literature

Plus two of the following:
ENGL 325 The Novel
ENGL 326 Modern British Literature
ENGL 327 Modern Drama
ENGL 328 Modern American Literature

Plus two additional English electives chosen from literature course, creative writing courses, or COMM 307.

ENGLISH MINOR

Courses required for a minor in English are:
ENGL 200 Introduction to World Literature
ENGL 210 British Literature to 1660
ENGL 220 British Literature 1660 to present

Plus 12 additional hours, nine of which must be at the 300 level or above. ENGL 230 is recommended.
HUMAN & COMMUNITY SERVICES

Human & Community Services is an interdisciplinary major that helps students develop a deeper understanding and perspective of factors which influence individuals and groups served in the community. Students study populations in diverse settings such as group homes; community mental health centers, correctional facilities, child and adolescent service agencies; and alcoholism, drug abuse, family violence, and aging programs. Emphasis is placed on understanding, prevention, and remediation of problems experienced by population served in these settings.

This program will prepare students for work in community-based agencies in professional and paraprofessional positions. According to the National Organization of Human Service Educators (NOHSE), employment opportunities in social service facilities are excellent and projected to grow rapidly.

Students enrolled in the Human & Community Services program at Queens College will participate in field experiences and a professional internship. This essential component of the major will enable students to make a strong connection between theory and practice, as well as study and work.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A MAJOR IN HUMAN & COMMUNITY SERVICES ARE:

HCSV101 Introduction to Community Services
PSYC 201 General Psychology
PSYC 306 Experimental Methods in Psychology with Lab

INFORMATION SYSTEMS

A major in Information Systems provides the student with a broad liberal education to design and develop information systems for organizations in both the private and public sectors of the economy. The major includes technical foundation courses in information technology as well as coursework in Business, Psychology and Philosophy. This inter-disciplinary approach provides students with both the skills needed for entry-level positions in the information technology (IT) industry as well as a broad perspective on the role and nature information systems necessary for career advancement in positions of management and leadership.

Careers The information technology (IT) industry is one of the fastest growing sectors of the global economy. Thousands of positions are available around the world, and the demand for qualified IT professionals far exceeds the supply. IT professionals design, develop, support and manage computer software, hardware, and networks, such as the Internet. There are many opportunities to function as a systems analyst, network engineer, database administrator, systems integrator, or consultant in industry, government or not-for-profit organizations.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS ARE:

ISYS 240 Applications Programming I
ISYS 250 Applications Programming II
ISYS 270 Introduction to Information Systems
ISYS 350 Systems Analysis, Design and Implementation
ISYS 370 Database Management Systems

PLUS six hours of Information Systems Electives.

NURSING

The James D. Vail III Bachelor of Science of Nursing program is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accreditation Commission (NLNAC). This four-year baccalaureate degree program provides opportunities for the development of the professional nurse through courses in the humanities; social, behavioral, and natural sciences; fine arts; and nursing. High priority is given to academic excellence and clinical experience. Major emphasis is placed on clinical nursing practice in combination with classroom and laboratory instruction. Selected clinical experiences begin in the second year of the program and progress throughout the program.

Students with a variety of backgrounds may be accommodated within the program. Students pursuing nursing for the first time, those with some nursing background, and those licensed to practice nursing (RNs) may all enter the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program.

The program provides an atmosphere in which the individual can develop a personal and professional value system. Pre-licensure graduates are eligible to apply to take the NCLEX-RN licensing exam. All graduates are prepared to practice professional nursing in a variety of settings and specialties. The curriculum prepares students for graduate study in nursing.

Clinical Course Enrollment The faculty of the Vail Program of Nursing have an academic, legal and ethical responsibility to protect the public and the health care community from unsafe and/or unprofessional nursing practice. It is within this context that prior to beginning each clinical experience, the student must meet clinical course pre-requisites outlined in the Nursing Student Handbook.

Admission to the Major Admission to Queens College does not guarantee admission to the nursing major. Acceptance to the nursing major is competitive and selective. Acceptance is based on a Queens cumulative grade point average and a prerequisite course grade point average of 2.500 (including all 200-level nursing courses) and at least a C- in the theory and lab components of all prerequisite courses. When the number of qualified student applicants exceeds the number that can be admitted, the amount of coursework taken at Queens will take on increased significance.
Application to the Major  All students must make formal application to the nursing program during or following the semester in which all required prerequisite courses are completed. Application requirements include:

- Non-refundable application fee,
- Prerequisite check-list with supporting transcripts

Students can receive specific information about clinical course requirements, admission, and application from their nursing advisor. The Nursing Student Qualifications Committee (NSQC) reviews applications at specified times during the year and notifies students of committee decisions in a timely manner.

Special Information for Registered Nurses  The nursing major at Queens offers a curriculum designed to accommodate career advancement and the diverse learning needs of registered nurses (RNs). The length of the program will depend upon prior academic preparation and individual scheduling. In addition to meeting the same admission and application requirements of pre-licensure students, RN requirements include:

- Copy of current, unrestricted license to practice as an RN in North Carolina,
- Evidence of current work experience or successful completion of validation examinations,

BSN DEGREE REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree are required to fulfill all Hayworth College graduation requirements as well as the requirements for the nursing major. Any request for exceptions to the outlined nursing major requirements are to be sent in writing to the chair of the NSQC. In order to graduate with a degree in nursing, a student must earn at least a C- in all the required courses listed below.

PREREQUISITE COURSES TO THE MAJOR:

OCOM 313 Topics in Organizational Communication
OCOM 317 Gender in the Workplace
OCOM 350 Independent Research/Study in Organizational Communication

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINOR IN ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION ARE:
At least 18 credit hours are required for the minor, including:
OCOM 315 Business and Professional Speaking
COMM 205 Interpersonal and Group Communication
COMM 300 Communication Theory and Ethics
OCOM 305 Organizational Communication

Plus two more courses (six credit hours) chosen from any 300-400 level OCOM offerings.

PHILOSOPHY & RELIGION MINOR

The study of philosophy and religion is worthwhile both for the intrinsic value of inquiring into what is best in thought and living, and also for the practical value of the intellectual habits one gains. Literally meaning “love of wisdom,” philosophy is the inquiry into fundamental questions that humans ask: what is the good life? what is most real? how can humans know? what is sound reasoning? what is the good life for humans? The academic study of philosophy and religion focuses on the “turning of the soul” and how communities as well as other religious traditions, the study of religion gives the basis for a good life. In keeping with Queens’ Presbyterian tradition, we recognize the importance of “thinking the faith.”

Students of philosophy and religion significantly enhance their critical thinking and analytical skills, as well as their communication skills. The broad inquiry into patterns of thought strengthens problem-solving ability, and helps the student attain a depth of thought that is invaluable for a wide variety of graduate studies and careers.

The minor consists of 6 courses, at least one of which must be a 300-level course.
200-level courses:
PHIL 203 Introduction to Philosophy
PHIL 204 Introduction to Logic
PHIL 207 Ethics
RELG 205 Old Testament
RELG 206 New Testament
RELG 210 Introduction to World Religions

300-level courses:
PHIL 305 Medical Ethics
RELG 310 The Book of Revelation and Apocalyptic Thought
RELG 344 Christian Ethics
RELG 345 Religion in America (may also be taken as HIST 345)
PHIL 349 Topics in Philosophy
RELG 349 Topics in Religion

PSYCHOLOGY

The department emphasizes the development of an understanding of factors important in determining behavior. Introductory courses present basic psychological principles; upper-level courses provide opportunities for further work in areas of special interest. Independent study allows the student to design and carry out original research. A major in Psychology provides a basis for graduate study in areas of psychology, education, social sciences, social work and law as well as a foundation for careers in personnel, social work, mental health and similar areas.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A MAJOR IN PSYCHOLOGY ARE:
PSYC 201 General Psychology
PSYC 303 Social Psychology
PSYC 306 Experimental Methods in Psychology
PSYC 306L Laboratory in Experimental Psychology
PSYC 314 Psychology of Learning
PSYC 400 Advanced General Psychology I
PSYC 401 Advanced General Psychology II
MATH 206 Statistical Methods

Plus at least 18 additional hours in the department as approved by the academic advisor. BIOL 112 and PHIL 203 are recommended.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A MINOR IN PSYCHOLOGY ARE:
PSYC 201 General Psychology

Plus one course chosen from:
PSYC 302 Psychology of Personality
PSYC 303 Social Psychology
PSYC 304 Abnormal Psychology
Plus one course chosen from:
PSYC 311 Psychological Tests
PSYC 314 Psychology of Learning
PSYC 412 Physiological Psychology

Plus three additional courses from the entire departmental offerings. A student planning to minor in Psychology should check with a departmental member.

RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY

A student may not be admitted to candidacy for the degree until certified by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists, with a transcript from any hospital school accredited by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists and approved by the College. Thirty semester-hours of credit are assigned to professional courses carried in the school of radiologic technology; these constitute the major. All of these 30 credit hours shall be considered equivalent to 300-400 level courses.

The Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Radiologic Technology will be granted upon successful completion of an additional 90 credit hours of approved college work. All degree requirements must be met.

Within the overall purpose of Queens College, the goals of Hayworth College are to provide graduate education within a liberal arts framework to non-traditional students in the Charlotte community. Graduate programs provide advanced, specialized education, which prepares students for professional careers. These programs also seek to develop personal and professional values that are necessary for responsible citizenship. Graduate Programs in Hayworth College lead to the Master of

Graduate Programs

Arts (MA) degree in Organizational Communication, the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree in elementary education, post-baccalaureate teacher certification, and the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

ACADEMIC RESPONSIBILITY  While Queens College makes every effort to advise and counsel students on their academic programs and academic requirements, it is the student who is ultimately responsible for fulfilling all requirements of a degree.

Academic Advising  An academic advisor is assigned to help the student with this responsibility and all the designated advisor should approve all academic plans. It is the student’s responsibility to schedule advising appointments with the designated advisor as necessary to plan a course of study to complete a graduate program, or to discuss current academic questions and problems.

CATALOG OF ENTRY  In general, a student must fulfill the degree requirements set forth in the Catalog current during the student’s first term enrolled in a graduate program at Queens. Academic policies amended while a student is enrolled in courses at Queens may be deemed to apply regardless of the policies stated in the Catalog at time of entry. The College reserves the right to modify degree requirements from those listed at the time of entry due to curricular exigencies. If students are readmitted they re-enter under the Catalog in effect at the time of readmission.

VARIATIONS IN DEGREE REQUIREMENTS  Any change in degree requirements must be approved by the appropriate Graduate Student Qualifications Committee.

ADMISSION ELIGIBILITY  Acceptance to a graduate program will remain effective for one calendar year following the beginning of the term for which the acceptance has been made. Individuals who wish to enter after the one-year period are required to reapply, and the subsequent admission decision will be based on the existing admission standards at the time of reapplication.

TIME LIMIT FOR DEGREE REQUIREMENT  All course work for the Master of Arts in Teaching degree or the Master of Arts in Organizational Communication degree must be completed within seven years of matriculation. All course work for the Master of Science in Nursing degree must be completed within five years of matriculation. The appropriate Student Qualifications Committee must grant exceptions to these time limit.

TRANSFER OF COURSES  Any grade received from another institution will not be included in the Queens grade-point average. Ordinarily, no more than six hours (two courses) of graduate credit are accepted in transfer work. Only graduate courses with a grade of B or better will be considered for transfer credit. Normally graduate students may take courses at another accredited institution for transfer if the courses are equivalent to, or supplemental to, those offered in Queens’ graduate programs.

Upon admission Courses considered for transfer credit must have been completed within the three years immediately preceding admission into a Queens College graduate program. Granting of transfer credit is dependent upon the specific course under consideration, which will be evaluated in terms of content, level, and equivalency to the course in the Queens graduate program.

After admission After a student has been admitted to a graduate program he/she must request prior approval from the graduate student advisor to receive credit for transferred courses. An official transcript of work done at another institution must be sent to the Registrar.

REGISTRATION All students are expected to register at the time and place indicated on each term schedule.

COURSE LOAD A full-time graduate academic load is nine credit hours per term. A student who is employed full-time should not take more than six graduate credit hours or nine credit hours of combined graduate and undergraduate courses per term.

DUAL ENROLLMENT Students enrolled in a graduate program may also take undergraduate courses at Queens. They may register for these classes at the same time and place as graduate class registrations, as long as they meet the necessary prerequisites or any other restrictions that apply to an individual class. Dual enrollees will follow the procedures, policies, and calendar of the undergraduate college in which they have enrolled.

DROP AND ADD The drop and add period is limited. When a course is dropped during that period, there is no record of that registration, and no tuition charge is incurred for that course. Students who drop all courses at Queens College in their first semester of attendance will not have matriculated into the College. To drop or add a course the student must contact the Hayworth Office or Registrar’s Office to complete the appropriate form. After the drop/add period has ended, a student must withdraw from any course he does not intend to complete in order to receive a grade status of "W".

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE The withdrawal period is limited. The deadline for course withdrawal is published each term in the term calendar. To withdraw from a course the student must contact the Hayworth Office or Registrar’s Office to complete the appropriate form. After the deadline for withdrawal a student who does not intend to complete a course and wishes to receive a grade status of
"W" must receive special permission from the Student Qualifications Committee. A student who simply stops attending class during the semester will receive a grade of "F" for the course.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COLLEGE
By the Student A student who wishes to withdraw from the College must notify the Hayworth Office and complete the appropriate form. Upon withdrawal, all grades in progress will be recorded as "W". A student who simply stops attending classes will receive a grade of "F" for all courses.

By the College If a student does not register for a course for two consecutive terms, the student will be administratively withdrawn from the College and considered an inactive student. An inactive student must apply to the admissions office for readmission, and will resume studies under the Catalog in effect at the time of readmission. The College reserves the right to require at any time the withdrawal of a student whose conduct or academic work is not considered satisfactory.

Leave of Absence Graduate students may request a leave of absence for a number of terms not to exceed one calendar year. A request for a leave of absence should be sent in writing to the Director of Hayworth College. Students who return on the agreed-upon date re-enter the program with the same status held at the time they left. Students who do not obtain a formal leave of absence, or those who do not return in the agreed-upon term, shall be considered withdrawn from the College and will have to reapply to gain readmission.

READMISSION Inactive students who were in good standing and who wish to re-enroll should submit a new application and any additional materials requested, including transcripts from all colleges attended since leaving Queens College. Readmitted students adhere to the requirements of the Catalog at the time of re-entry.

GRADUATION
Graduation Requirements Students may receive a graduate degree only after meeting all of their program requirements. A grade-point average of 3.000 or better is required in all graduate course work. No more than six extra hours (two courses) may be taken for the purpose of increasing the student’s grade-point average to the required level. No course with an assigned grade below C may apply toward degree requirements.

Declaration of Intent to Graduate It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of progress toward the degree, and to file a completed Intent to Graduate form in the registrar’s office before the first day of class in the term before the term in which the degree requirements will be completed. It is recommended that graduate students file intent to graduate six months before completion of a program.
Commencement exercises are held in May of each year for all graduates who have completed degree requirements in the previous summer and fall terms, and in the current spring term. The diploma is awarded at this time.

GRADING

Graduation requirements are based on the quantity and quality of the student’s work. Graduate programs use the following system of grades and grade-point values per credit hour.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A = Excellent</td>
<td>4.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B = Satisfactory</td>
<td>3.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C = Poor</td>
<td>2.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F = Failing</td>
<td>0.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P = Passing</td>
<td>0.000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Status</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I = Course Work Incomplete</td>
<td>0.000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W = Student Withdrawal</td>
<td>0.000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Grade Point Average  The grade point average is used to determine eligibility for admission and graduation. It is calculated by dividing the total number of quality points by the total number of graded credit hours attempted. Graded credit hours include all courses with grades of A, B, C, and F. Courses with grades or status of P, W, and I are not figured in the grade-point average. A student’s cumulative grade-point average at Queens is based solely on academic work at Queens, and is not affected by course credit earned at another institution.

Pass / No Record  Some graduate classes may be offered on a Pass/ No Record basis. Pass in a graduate course is equivalent to A or B. A graduate course may not be taken on a Pass/ No Record basis unless this grade status is specified in the course description.

Incomplete Status  Only the faculty member may assign a course status of Incomplete (I). When a faculty member assigns a grade status of I in a course for a student, the faculty member must complete the appropriate form in the registrar’s office. A status of Incomplete (I) may be assigned if a student is passing the course and has a justifiable reason for not completing the work on time. This status must be changed within one year of the end of the term in which the status was recorded by completing the stipulated work. Otherwise, the instructor or the registrar may change the status as appropriate. No student with a status of "I" may receive a degree. Neither credit hours nor grade points are awarded for a course whose status is "I".

GRADUATE PROGRAMS
STUDENT QUALIFICATIONS

The faculty has established standards of satisfactory academic progress which are administered by its Graduate Student Qualifications Committees. At the end of each term the appropriate committee reviews the academic record of each student who is in academic difficulty.

Academic probation and dismissal A graduate student who earns an F in any course will be subject to dismissal from the college. Students will be placed on probation if they earn a grade of C in two graduate courses, or if their grade point average falls below 3.000. The records of students placed on academic probation will be reviewed by the appropriate committee at the end of each term. To be removed from probation the student’s cumulative record must be at least 3.000 and the student must not have more than two grades below B on the academic record.

If an education or organizational communication student cannot be removed from probation after one term, he or she is subject to academic dismissal from the college.

If a nursing student cannot be removed from probation after two consecutive terms following probation, that student is subject to academic dismissal from the college.

Admission on Probation Students admitted on academic probation must meet the terms of probation set by their admission letter, which may vary, in order to be allowed to continue in the program.

Readmission after Dismissal A student dismissed from a graduate program may apply for readmission after an absence of at least one term. An application must be submitted to the Hayworth Graduate Admissions Office along with a personal statement concerning the student’s goals and accomplishments since leaving Queens and expectations of future success at Queens. The application will be submitted to the appropriate Graduate Student Qualifications Committee for action. A student readmitted to a graduate program following academic dismissal is normally placed on academic probation.

THE HONOR CODE

The Honor Code of Queens College is at the heart of our commitment to integrity and academic freedom. The purpose of the Honor Code is to provide this community with an atmosphere of mutual trust among students, faculty, and administration. The Honor Code is binding on all members of the College community and applies to all phases of life at the College. Queens students are responsible for their personal conduct at all times and shall be subject to discipline, including possible suspension, for behavior that discredits themselves or the College. As a commitment to this system of honor, students are asked to sign the Honor Code as part of their application for admission. The Honor Code incorporates two different pledges of student conduct: the academic pledge and the community pledge.
In addition, it embodies the individual’s commitment to developing a community of honor, including taking action against those who violate the Honor Code:

As a member of the Queens College community, I will endeavor to create a spirit of integrity and honor for its own sake at Queens College. Academic Pledge: I pledge truthfulness and absolute honesty in the performance of all academic work. Community Pledge: I pledge to be truthful at all times, to treat others with respect, to respect the property of others, and to adhere to College policies. Accepting both the privileges and responsibilities of living by this code of honor, I resolve to uphold this code and not to tolerate any violations of its spirit or principles.

Violations of the Honor Code include, but are not limited to, cheating, lying, theft, and academic dishonesty. Two examples of the latter are plagiarism, the use of another’s words or ideas without giving credit to the source, and computer misuse, including accessing, transferring, or altering information without authorization. Suspected violations of the Honor Code by an undergraduate student should be reported to the Dean of Hayworth College, and will be heard by The Hayworth College Hearing Board. Suspected violations of the Honor Code by a graduate student should be reported to the Dean of Graduate Programs and will be dealt with by The Hayworth College Hearing Board.

STUDENT RECORDS

Public Records (Directory Information) The following information on individual students is considered Directory Information and is public: full name, local address, home address, telephone number, date of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance at Queens College, class year, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized college activities and student organizations, parents’ names, class schedules, and religious affiliation. This public information may be released or published without the student’s consent. However, it is the policy of Queens College to refuse to release information to private firms or mailing lists. Students who do not wish this information made public may inform the Registrar’s Office, requesting a “Directory Hold” in writing, within 10 days after registration each term. The Registrar will notify other college offices of such requests. Students should understand that if they withhold directory information, it will not be released to anyone unless the health or safety of an individual is involved. Requests for student data from agencies such as HEW, OEO, and research agencies may be honored without prior approval of the student, ordinarily in anonymous form.

Confidential Records All personally identifiable material on particular students used to make decisions about students or used for transmittal to others outside the college and which is other than public material, as defined above, is considered confidential. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following items: academic evaluations, advising records, disciplinary records, financial aid records, letters of recommendation, medical or health records, clinical counseling records, transcripts, test scores, and other academic work.

Official Records Official records are released only with the written permission of the student. Official records include material on students relating to their status as students held by any office of the College and intended for the use of the College or available to parties outside the college.

Official records do not include the following: letters of recommendation for which the student has waived the right of access, public safety records, medical and clinical counseling records, financial records of parents, private records kept by individual faculty or administrators as aids to memory but not intended for transmittal to others.

Access to Official Records Queens College, in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, permits students to inspect their records whenever appropriate and to challenge specific parts of them as necessary. Each enrolled or former student of Queens college has the right to inspect and review official educational records or files of the college directly relating to that student. (Note: Files on individual students are retained for five years after the student leaves the college. Only the transcript is kept indefinitely.) Student access to official educational records or files directly relating to the student is provided in the presence of a staff member. The permanent academic record (transcript) will not be allowed outside the Registrar’s office. The right to access does not extend to applicants, those denied admission, or those admitted who do not enroll. Offices may require that requests for access be submitted in writing and may ask for, but not require, the reason for the request. A copy of a student’s transcript and/or other recorded data will be made available to college officials who show legitimate educational needs without written permission of the student. Records will be kept in offices whose functions require such information.

A student is entitled to an explanation of relevant information contained in official records. The student has the right to a hearing to challenge the content of an official record to ensure that it does not contain information which is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of privacy or other rights, and to correct or delete inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate material.

RECORDS OF PROGRESS
The college maintains records of progress on both veteran and non-veteran students. Progress records are furnished to all students at the end of each scheduled academic term.
RECORDS OF IMMUNIZATION
Students who are enrolled in four or more credit hours, and who are taking any classes which begin before 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, are required to provide valid documentation of immunizations to be compliant with North Carolina state law. Forms for this purpose are available from and are kept on file in the Health and Wellness Center.

GRADUATE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING (MAT)

The MAT program supports the purpose of Queens College which is to educate students for noble lives, productive careers, and responsible citizenship, all within a changing global community. Queens College believes that each individual has a responsibility to the society at large which is exercised through personal service as expressed in the Queens College motto: "Not to be served, but to serve."

GOALS

The MAT program will:

• provide opportunities for the teacher to develop insights into the understandings of the theoretical and philosophical bases for educational practices in the elementary school, the elementary curriculum, the interrelationship of subjects and major curriculum movements and trends;
• develop the teacher's understanding of the nature of the learner, the learning process and the evaluation of learning;
• assist the teacher in gaining insights and skills in the use of techniques of research and in designing and carrying out research projects;
• provide the teacher with a concentrated study of the instructional areas of the elementary curriculum;
• develop the teacher's ability to synthesize information and resources to provide a developmentally appropriate living/learning environment for elementary children; and
• promote increased understanding of advanced computer skills and integrate technology into the curriculum.

OBJECTIVES

The MAT program will:

• develop knowledge and understanding of theories and principles of human growth and development and learning and their implications for providing learning environments appropriate to the physical, cognitive, social and emotional needs of elementary school children;
• develop an understanding of the basic principles of curriculum planning and implementation of a developmentally appropriate, comprehensive integrated classroom program;
• develop knowledge of learning strategies and models consistent with the developmental needs of elementary school children and reflective of proven educational practice and research;
• develop knowledge of effective instructional practices and assessment strategies which apply language and literacy research and theory to the planning of an integrated literature and communication process throughout the curriculum;
• develop knowledge and understanding of the mathematical concepts and processes and their implications for developing learning environments which focus on the importance of learning through concrete and manipulative experiences and on fostering positive attitudes towards mathematics;
• develop knowledge of science concepts, principles, and experiences that will enable teachers to provide integrated, discovery-centered, teacher-facilitated classroom science programs which are developmentally appropriate for elementary school children.

ADMISSION to the MAT Program
Those interested in the MAT program should contact the Graduate & Adult Admissions office at (704) 337-2314. To be considered for admission to the MAT program, an applicant must:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree in a major other than education from an accredited institution.
2. Submit a completed graduate application form, including the non-refundable $25 application fee.
3. Submit official transcript(s) of all post-secondary academic course work. It is the applicant’s responsibility to have ALL transcripts sent directly from each institution attended to the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office.
4. Have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.500 or better on a 4.000 scale on all post-secondary academic course work.
5. Provide the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office with two letters of reference.
6. Submit satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). Verbal 380 / Analytical 380 / Quantitative 410
7. Provide an in-house writing sample. Candidate should contact Graduate & Adult Admissions Office to make arrangements.
8. Schedule a personal interview. Please call (704) 337-2314 for an appointment.
9. Applicants from non-English-speaking countries need to submit additional documents. Candidate should contact the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office.

STUDENT STATUS
FULL GRADUATE STATUS is accorded applicants who have met all admissions requirements, including a satisfactory undergraduate grade-point average, an acceptable GRE score, and the satisfactory completion of any required preparation or prerequisite courses.

PRELIMINARY GRADUATE STATUS is accorded applicants who have not yet completed the required prerequisite courses or preparatory requirements. Students should notify the graduate office when all preliminary course work has been completed to receive full graduate status. Students must be at full graduate status before the student teaching internship experience.
NONDEGREE GRADUATE STATUS  A student who wishes to take graduate courses for teaching-license renewal or other personal reasons, but not for a degree, will be classified as having non-degree graduate status. Typically, to be admitted as a non-degree graduate student, an individual must complete the same admissions procedures as other graduate applicants and meet the standards for general admission into the graduate program.

Generally, a non-degree graduate student may not take more than nine credit hours. After completion of nine credit hours, the student must be admitted with full graduate status or receive special permission in order to continue.

NONDEGREE TRANSIENT STATUS  A student who wishes to take a graduate course for transfer to another institution will be classified as a transient student. Generally, a transient student is admitted for one term only. Transient students must complete an application form, copies of transcripts for all post-secondary work, a copy of their GRE score (or special permission), a letter of good standing from their home institution and evidence of completion of any prerequisites required.

RETENTION  Retention in the program is based on the expectation that students demonstrate the characteristics of, and conduct themselves as members of, the teaching profession. Students may be removed from the program upon showing professional incompetence. A deficiency in one or more of the following areas is evidence of professional incompetence:

- knowledge of the subject taught,
- ability to impart that knowledge,
- the manner and efficacy of discipline in the classroom,
- rapport with students, as well as parents, faculty, administration and staff,
- physical and mental ability to perform the essential functions of a teacher.

Professional incompetence may be grounds for a failure to recommend students for licensure.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS  MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING  PROFESSIONAL COURSE WORK  The MAT is a two phase program consisting of 39 hours of graduate professional education course work in Phase I and 9 hours of graduate professional education course work in Phase II. A 9 credit hour student teaching internship experience is required (in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School (CMS) System. This experience is the capstone of the program. Enrollment in EDUC 593 Professional Internship takes place only after the completion of all professional course work.
COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION
A comprehensive written examination is required. The examination is taken at the end of Phase II when all other program requirements are satisfied. Students must successfully complete the examination before they are awarded the degree. The exam is evaluated on a pass/fail basis.

UNDERGRADUATE COMPETENCY REQUIREMENTS
The MAT program and the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction require a well-rounded liberal arts background. In most cases the minimum general education requirements would include courses in the following areas, which must be completed before beginning the professional internship:

- Two courses in composition
- Literature
- World Civilization Since 1650
- The United States Since 1877
- One course in college mathematics
- General Psychology
- Principles of Sociology
- One laboratory science course
- One economics course
- One additional social science course, preferably political science
- Two additional liberal arts courses chosen from different disciplines, (i.e. music, art, drama, foreign language, speech, philosophy)

PROGRAM OF STUDY FOR MAT
The MAT program is designed to offer North Carolina licensure in elementary education to those who have undergraduate degrees in majors other than education. The program is structured in two phases. At the end of Phase I, candidates apply for initial licensure. Once employed as a teacher, candidates complete Phase II. At the end of Phase II, candidates earn the MAT and upgrade to an advanced masters license.

Phase I
The course of study for Phase I provides candidates with teaching competencies identified by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI).

Total credit hours = 39 (ten courses plus internship)

Other Phase I Requirements:
- 10 Hours Additional Field Experience
- Pass PRAXIS II Tests
- Submit Technology Portfolio

Field Experiences In conjunction with course requirements, the program requires field experiences in a variety of grade levels in the CMS System. Field experiences related to methods courses will be arranged with the course instructor. Each candidate is responsible for completing the field hours required in the methods courses. Each field experience placement consists of opportunities for candidates to:

- Observe students and teachers in a learning environment.
- Assist teachers with professional responsibilities.
- Provide direct teaching and management experience in one-on-one or small group settings.

In addition, candidates will design and complete a 10-hour-minimum field placement at an elementary school of their choice. The purpose of this experience is to broaden candidates’ knowledge and enable them to pursue their interest in the variety of elementary school configurations. A field experience proposal must be submitted and approved by the division prior to beginning the self-designed field experience. Forms for this purpose are available from the Education Division.

Candidates are asked to keep a reflective journal documenting the self-designed field Experience. Completed journals will be submitted to the Education Division prior to the internship semester.

State-Mandated Tests - North Carolina Licensure requires candidates to successfully pass the elementary education specialty area of the PRAXIS II Examination. Information and registration bulletins are available in the Education Division. Currently in North Carolina, required tests for elementary education candidates are Elementary Education: Curriculum, Instruction and Assessments (Test Code 10011); and Elementary Education: Content Area Exercises (Test Code 20012).
• North Carolina Licensure requires candidates to demonstrate computer competencies through Technolgy Portfolios. Information about the portfolios is distributed in EDUC514: Educational Technology. At the completion of all Phase I requirements, candidates apply for North Carolina initial licensure level ‘A’. At this point, candidates are licensed to teach in grades K-6 in public schools in North Carolina. All Phase I courses/requirements must be completed before the start of Phase II.

Phase II
The course of study for Phase II is designed to extend NCDPI competencies, build on and align with the National Board propositions for experienced teachers, and matches the core competencies required for advanced licensure. Candidates are classroom teachers in Phase II.

MAT conferred; apply for advanced licensure level ‘M’.

Other Phase II Requirements:
• Action Research Project
• Teaching Portfolio
• Comprehensive Examination

• The Action Research Project is a culminating activity for Phase II EDUC551 Teacher as Researcher. Candidates conduct original research, report it as a publishable paper, and present it at an Action Research Symposium.
• Presently, the NCDPI requires initially licensed teachers to advance through a performance-based licensure (PBL) process. The purpose of the Teaching Portfolio is to assist candidates as they work through this process.
• The Comprehensive Examination allows candidates to demonstrate their ability to synthesize program knowledge. The examination is evaluated on a pass/fail basis.

SUGGESTED COURSE SEQUENCE
Students may begin the MAT program at any term - spring, summer, or fall. A sequence of courses can be developed for individual students by the MAT advisor. Suggested sequences may be obtained from the graduate student advisor or the Education Division.
Notes:
• EDUC 520 Elementary School Curriculum and Instruction should be taken as early in the program as possible.
• EDUC 527 Teaching Reading and Other Language Arts should be taken before EDUC 524 Diagnosis and Correction of Reading Difficulties.
• EDUC 499 Professional Internship should be scheduled for the final term of Phase I. All Phase I coursework must be completed before student teaching.

Important Notes:
• The Queens College Education Division has a webboard support network established for the purposes of keeping the candidate informed of teacher issues and forms availability. The address is: www.queens.edu/webboard.
• It is the responsibility of the candidate to keep the advisor aware of his/her status as a candidate.

STATE LICENSURE
 Queens College must meet all national and state mandates in order to retain program approval. Candidates must fulfill all national and state requirements in place at the time of application for licensure. In order to meet the requirements for licensure in the state of North Carolina, completion of the MAT program and passing scores on the Specialty Area components of the PRAXIS are required as well as any additional requirements mandated by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction.

RETENTION IN THE PROGRAM
 Retention in the program is based on the expectation that candidates demonstrate characteristics of and conduct themselves as members of the teaching profession. Candidates may be removed from the program upon showing professional incompetence. A deficiency in one or more of the following areas is evidence of professional incompetence:

• knowledge of the subject area;
• ability to impart that knowledge;
• the manner and efficacy of discipline in the classroom;
• rapport with students, as well as parents, faculty, administration and staff;
• physical and mental ability to perform the essential functions of a teacher.

Professional incompetence may be grounds for dismissal from the program and failure to recommend candidates for licensure.
POST BACCALAUREATE TEACHER LICENSURE ONLY

In addition to providing graduate programs, the Education Division has developed individual programs for post-baccalaureate, non-degree candidates seeking initial North Carolina Class "A" licensure.

Queens College is accredited by the state of North Carolina to offer licensure in the following areas:

- Elementary Education (K-6)
- Secondary Education (9-12) in the areas of English, mathematics, biology, history, or general social studies
- Spanish or French (K-12)

With the exception of the student teaching practicum, all education course work can be completed in the evening.

Content area courses required for secondary licensure (9-12) in English are offered in the evenings. Content courses for licensure in elementary education, other areas of secondary (9-12), and K-12 Spanish or French are available for students who can take classes during the day as well.

ADMISSION TO THE POST BACCALAUREATE TEACHER LICENSURE PROGRAM

Individuals who hold a bachelor’s degree and are interested in obtaining teacher licensure in the areas listed above should contact the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office at 704-337-2314 for information.

To be considered for admission to the Post Baccalaureate-Teacher Licensure Program (PBTL), an applicant must:

1) Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution with a major in the subject area for which licensure is sought.
2) Submit a completed graduate application form, including the non-refundable $25 application fee.
3) Submit official transcript(s) of all post-secondary academic course work. It is the applicant’s responsibility to have ALL transcripts sent directly from each institution attended to the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office.
4) Have a cumulative grade-point average of at least a 2.500 or better on a 4.00 scale on all post-secondary academic course work, or receive special permission from the admissions committee. The grade-point average on all major courses required for preparation for the area of the proposed graduate study should be 3.00 or better on a 4.00 scale.
5) Provide the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office with two letters of reference.
6) Submit satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or PRAXIS I, Pre-Professional Skills Test.
7) Schedule a personal interview. Please call (704)337-2314 for an appointment.
8) Applicants from non-English-speaking countries also must submit the following documents:
   a) Test scores of 550 or higher on the written exam or 213 or higher on the computer based exam on the Test of English as Foreign Language (TOEFL) Examination.
   b) Certified English translation of all prior academic records for work that corresponds to the bachelor’s degree in the United States.
   c) Bank statements stating that funds, in US currency, are available for the student’s education. Students and their families should be prepared to bear all expenses involved in obtaining an education in the United States since there are no federal or state financial aid resources for foreign students.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS
The Post-Baccalaureate Program and the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) require a well-rounded liberal arts background. In most cases the minimum general education requirements would include courses in the following areas, which must be completed before beginning the professional internship:
   • Two courses in Composition
   • Literature
   • World Civilization
   • United States History
   • One course in College Mathematics

POST-BACCALAUREATE TESTING
Post-baccalaureate candidates must provide acceptable scores on the PRAXIS I, Pre-Professional Skills Test (PPST) or the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) during the first term of enrollment. The PPST has three components: Reading, Writing, and Mathematics. Scores are set by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction on each component. Information and registration bulletins are available in the Education Division.

North Carolina Licensure requires post-baccalaureate candidates to submit satisfactory scores on the PRAXIS II Specialty Area Tests. Candidates must achieve set scores before applying for licensure. Currently in North Carolina and before application for licensure, the following test codes apply:
• English
  English Language, Lit, & Comp: Content Knowledge (test code 10041)
  English Language, Lit, & Comp: Pedagogy (test code 30043)
• Mathematics
  Mathematics: Content Knowledge (graphing calc req’d) (test code 30065)
  Mathematics: Pedagogy (calculator prohibited) (test code 20065)
• Biology
  Biology: Content Knowledge (0235) (test code 20235)
  Biology: Pedagogy (test code 30234)
• History
  Social Studies: Content Knowledge (test code 10081)
  Social Studies: Pedagogy (test code 30084)

• Spanish
  Spanish: Content Knowledge (contains listening section) (test code 20191)
  Spanish: Prod Lang Skills (contains speaking section) (test code 20192)

* Test under consideration, verify with state.

Important Notes:
• The Queens College Education Division has a webboard support network established for the purposes of keeping the candidate informed of teacher issues and forms availability. The address is: www.queens.edu/webboard.
• It is the responsibility of the candidate to keep the advisor aware of his/her status as a candidate.

STATE LICENSURE
Queens College must meet all national and state mandates in order to retain program approval. Candidates must fulfill all national and state requirements in place at the time of application for licensure. In order to meet the requirements for licensure in the state of North Carolina, completion of the Post-Baccalaureate program and passing scores on the Specialty Area components of the PRAXIS are required as well as any additional requirements mandated by the N.C. Department of Public Instruction.
RETENTION IN THE PROGRAM

Retention in the program is based on the expectation that candidates demonstrate characteristics of and conduct themselves as members of the teaching profession. Candidates may be removed from the program upon showing professional incompetence. A deficiency in one or more of the following areas is evidence of professional incompetence:

- knowledge of the subject area;
- ability to impart that knowledge;
- the manner and efficacy of discipline in the classroom;
- rapport with students, as well as parents, faculty, administration and staff;
- physical and mental ability to perform the essential functions of a teacher.

Professional incompetence may be grounds for dismissal from the program and failure to recommend candidates for licensure.

POST BACCALAUREATE STUDENTS ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING POLICIES:

- Each candidate for teacher licensure must meet with an advisor to plan an individual schedule of courses.
- Students should thereafter meet with their advisor on a regular basis.
- The student may register for any course for which the prerequisites have been satisfied.
- The student is subject to the academic regulations and standards required of degree candidates.
- The post baccalaureate classification carries with it no implication that a student will be admitted to a degree program.
- Post baccalaureate students who are subsequently admitted to the MAT program may request that a maximum of nine hours of graduate level credit be used for their MAT program.
- Post baccalaureate students must successfully complete a minimum of 12 credit hours at Queens prior to student teaching. Six of those hours must be within the Education Division.
- Post baccalaureate students must provide acceptable scores on the PRAXIS I, Preprofessional Skills Test (PPST) or the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). The PPST has three components: Reading, Writing, and Mathematics. Scores are set by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction on each component.
- Post baccalaureate students must apply for student teaching during the fall term before they intend to student teach. Applications can be obtained in the Education Division Office in October for spring assignments. Notification of application deadlines and other important information is posted in the Curriculum Resource Center in the lower level of Everett Library and by the Education Office. Students are responsible for meeting all deadlines and completing applications and forms accurately. Failure to comply may cause delay in student teaching placements.
• Post baccalaureate students must submit satisfactory scores on the PRAXIS II Specialty Area Tests. The PRAXIS II must be taken before licensure.
• Students who successfully complete all licensure requirements including student teaching, are recommended for licensure by Queens College.

GRADUATE NURSING PROGRAMS

Master Of Science In Nursing (MSN)

The Vail Program of Nursing offers the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree with a focus in Health Systems Management which is designed to prepare nurses as interdisciplinary collaborative nurse executives. Integral to the program are interdisciplinary educational experiences with the McColl School of Business. Students will gain a business perspective in economics, finance, law, ethics, and the management of organizations. They will acquire advanced knowledge of nursing theory, research, informatics, systems, and health policy. Students will have opportunities to synthesize nursing and business knowledge in diverse settings and through application of the research process. Graduates will be prepared to function as members of interdisciplinary executive level teams.

ADMISSION TO THE MSN PROGRAM

Those interested in the MSN program should contact the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office at 337-2314. The following are required to be considered for admission to the MSN program:
1. A completed graduate application form, including the non-refundable $25 application fee.
2. Evidence of a BSN degree from an accredited institution. RNs with other bachelor’s degrees will be considered on an individual basis.
3. Evidence of a current unrestricted license to practice nursing.
4. Evidence of a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in the last 60 hours of course work. Applicants with less than 3.0 GPA must submit GRE scores with a combined total score of 1500 or higher.
5. Official transcript(s) of all post-secondary academic course work.
6. Two letters of recommendation.
7. A current resume including goals & objectives.

Once admitted, MSN candidates may begin in any semester: Fall, Spring, or Summer.
International students must also submit the following documents:

a) Test scores of 550 or higher on the written exam or 213 or higher on the computer based exam on the Test of English as Foreign Language (TOEFL) Examination.

b) Certified English translation of all prior academic records for work that corresponds to the bachelor’s degree in the United States.

c) Bank statements stating that funds, in US currency, are available for the student’s education. Students and their families should be prepared to bear all expenses involved in obtaining an education in the United States since there are no federal or state financial aid resources for foreign students.

STUDENT STATUS

Full Acceptance requires successful completion of an undergraduate or graduate statistics course within the past five years and the evidence of computer competency. An interview with the graduate admissions committee is also required. These pre-requisites must be met within the first two terms of graduate study at Queens College.

Non-degree Graduate Status is accorded an applicant who wishes to take graduate nursing courses for personal satisfaction or other reasons, but not for a degree. Generally a graduate student may not take more than nine hours as a non-degree student.

To be admitted as a non-degree graduate student, an individual must:

1. Hold a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from an accredited institution. RNs with other bachelor’s degrees will be considered on an individual basis.

2. Submit a completed graduate application form, including the non-refundable $25 application fee.

3. Submit official transcript(s) of all post-secondary academic course work. It is the applicant’s responsibility to have all transcripts sent directly from each institution attended.

4. Have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.000 on a 4.000 grade scale in all post-secondary academic course work and/or acceptable GRE scores.

5. Provide evidence of an unrestricted license to practice nursing.

Transient Status is accorded an applicant who wishes to take a graduate course for transfer to another institution. Generally a transient student is admitted for one term only. Transient students must complete an application form, submit a letter of good standing from their home institution showing permission to take specific course(s), and evidence of completion of any prerequisites required.
DEGREE REQUIREMENTS
MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING
The Master of Science in Nursing program consists of 36 credit hours at the graduate level, including 18 credit hours in nursing core courses, and 18 credit hours in Specialty courses.

RN TO MSN PROGRAM

Registered nurses in the Hayworth College BSN degree completion program may be eligible to apply for admission to the RN to MSN program once they have been admitted to the BSN upper division major.

STEP ONE: Admission to the BSN major.

Students must be accepted into the BSN program before they are eligible to apply to the MSN program. To qualify for admission to the BSN major, students must complete with a C- or better (or test out of) all support courses and have an overall GPA of 2.5 at Queens and a 2.5 in the support courses. The residency requirement of 45 credit hours and 36 hours in 300-400 level courses is required before a BSN is awarded.

GRADUATE ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION PROGRAM

Master of Arts Degree in Organizational Communication

THE MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE IN ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION provides students with an understanding of the theories and practices of that lifeblood of all organizations, communication. This program of study will help learners enhance their critical thinking and diagnostic skills by studying organizational communication processes and structures. Courses investigate the range of communicative functions critical to organizations, including individual, interpersonal, group, intercultural, public, and mediated communication. These processes affect all organizations, whether corporate, governmental, professional, or nonprofit.

The MA degree in Organizational Communication provide students with analytical thinking, problem solving and collaborative learning skills. Courses emphasize the critical components necessary to become astute consumers, critics, and creators of human communication in organizational contexts. Classes blend theoretical perspectives with pragmatic applications, through such formats as substantive research papers, workshops, and group presentations.

ADMISSION to the MA in Organizational Communication

Those interested in the MA program in Organizational Communication should contact the Graduate & Adult Admissions Office at 337-2314.

Requirements for Admission

To be considered for admission into the MA program an applicant must:

1. Hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.
2. Have significant full-time work experience (five years is recommended), or permission of the Admissions Committee.
3. Submit a completed graduate application form, including the non-refundable $25 application fee.
4. Submit official transcripts of all post-secondary academic coursework. It is the responsibility of the applicant to have all transcripts sent directly from each institution attended.
5. Have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 grade scale. Those applicants without a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above must provide acceptable GRE scores from within the past 5 years before they will be admitted. Verbal 500 / Analytical 450
6. Provide a resume including goals and objectives.
7. Provide two letters of academic or professional reference.

An interview with the Admissions Committee is highly recommended.

Students are expected to make reasonable progress toward the degree; absences from the program of more than two (consecutive) semesters will require readmittance into the program.
International students must also submit the following documents:

a) Test scores of 550 or higher on the written exam or 213 or higher on the computer based exam on the Test of English as Foreign Language (TOEFL) Examination.

b) Certified English translation of all prior academic records for work that corresponds to the bachelor’s degree in the United States.

c) Bank statements stating that funds, in US currency, are available for the student’s education. Students and their families should be prepared to bear all expenses involved in obtaining an education in the United States since there are no federal or state financial aid resources for foreign students.

STUDENT STATUS

FULL GRADUATE STATUS is assigned to students who are pursuing a master’s degree and who have met all admission requirements, including the satisfactory undergraduate grade-point average. Those without a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above must provide an acceptable GRE score from within the past 5 years before they will be admitted.

NON-DEGREE GRADUATE STATUS is assigned to students who wish to take graduate courses for personal satisfaction, but who may not wish to work toward a master’s degree. Non-degree graduate students generally may not take more than nine credit hours. To be admitted as a non-degree graduate student, an individual must complete the same admissions procedures and standards as other graduate applicants, and must have an undergraduate overall grade point average of 3.0.

TRANSIENT STATUS is assigned to students who wish to take a graduate course for transfer to another institution. Generally, a transient student is admitted for one term only. Transient students must complete an application form, submit copies of all post-secondary transcripts, submit a copy of their GRE scores and a letter of good standing from their home institution.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The Master of Arts in Organizational Communication requires completion of eleven courses totalling 36 semester hours. The program combines required courses and electives.

All students must begin their program with OCOM 602: Research Proseminar, either taken in conjunction with or followed immediately by OCOM 604: Theories of Organizational Communication. Students then choose either OCOM 615: Interpersonal Communication or OCOM 616: Small Group Communication; and either OCOM 619: Public relations or OCOM 621: Advertising.

Based on this core, students select 6 courses, totalling 18 hours, of electives. These electives may include the alternative choices from the above pairs. Finally, all students conclude their program with OCOM 626: Capstone seminar in Organizational Communication, a 6-hour class integrating their course of graduate study with intensive investigation of a specific case of organizational communication.

Students must achieve a grade of C or better in each class. Students must maintain a 3.0 grade point average for continuation in the program; those falling below that requirement will be reviewed by the Student Qualifications Committee.

CLASS SCHEDULING Each class will meet once a week, either one week night or Saturday morning.
Course Descriptions

Course Listings Course listings give general information concerning each area of study and the requirements for major programs in each discipline. These requirements should be carefully noted by students when deciding on a major.

Undergraduate Course Numbers Credit earned in courses numbered below 100 may not be applied to any graduation requirements. In general, courses numbered 100-299 are primarily for freshmen and sophomores; those numbered 300-499 are primarily for juniors and seniors. In specific cases, however, the individual student's ability and background rather than class standing will determine the appropriate level of work.

Graduate Course Numbers Courses numbered 500 and above are graduate level courses, and are only available to students who have been admitted to a graduate program.

Term Offered Some courses have terms listed in parentheses after the description. This indicates the term in which the college anticipates offering this course. When no term is indicated, the course is not on a predetermined rotation.

Course Changes Queens College reserves the right to change the course offerings, term offered, and instructors indicated in this Catalog without prior notice to students. Every effort is made to help a student affected by a course change by providing the opportunity for independent study or some other suitable arrangement.

AMERICAN STUDIES

AMST 300 Topics in American Studies An investigation of selected topics in American Studies. Specific topics and their prerequisites will vary. May be repeated with different subtitles. 3 Hrs.

AMST 400 Special Project in American Studies This course is designed to allow the student majoring in American studies the opportunity to pursue an area of special interest. The student will design a project in conjunction with a supervising faculty member. The project may involve directed readings, an internship, or an independent study. Open to all juniors and seniors. May be repeated for a total of up to 6 credit hours. 1-3 Hrs.

ART

ART 101 Introduction to Art History Designed for the student with little or no art experience who wishes to gain understanding of the "language" of art (composition, line, space, color, etc.) and art's significance in human terms. Involves slide presentations and classroom discussions of art works within an historical context. 3 Hrs. (Fall, Spring, Summer)
ART 204 Drawing  Emphasis on drawing through close observation of nature and as an expressive medium for communicating felt responses to subject matter. Exercises in contour, gesture, modeled form and light, using still life, landscape, and the human figure. Media include pencil, charcoal and ink. 3 Hrs.

ART 215 Ancient to Early Renaissance Art  Survey of stylistic developments and cultural contexts in architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts of the Mediterranean and European countries from prehistoric times to approximately 1500 A.D. 3 Hrs.

ART 216 High Renaissance Art to the Present  Survey of stylistic developments and cultural contexts in architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts of Europe and America from approximately 1500 to the present. 3 Hrs.

ART 223 Ceramics  Fundamentals of both hand building and throwing on the potter’s wheel. Hand-building techniques will include pinch, coil and slab construction. Glaze instructions will stress the relationships between form and color. Six hours studio a week. 3 Hrs.

ART 233 Design Theory  This course addresses the theoretical principles of design, both spatial (two- and three-dimensional) and temporal. Involves case studies from painting, sculpture, architecture, film, video, poetry, music, etc. 3 Hrs.

ART 234 Design Laboratory  This course is a continuation of ART 233 Design Theory, with practical application of design principles through two- and three-dimensional projects. Prerequisite: ART 233. 3 Hrs.

ART 300 The Arts in the Modern World  This is an interdisciplinary arts course that examines the arts (painting, sculpture, music, theater, film, literature, dance, etc.) within their cultural contexts. What is studied within the classroom is put to the test through attendance at live performances, exhibits, etc. within the Charlotte community. No prerequisite. 3 Hrs.

ART 303 Sculpture  Exploration of basic elements of three-dimensional form and space with special emphasis on the exploration of various styles, materials, and construction techniques. Three hours studio per week. 3 Hrs.

ART 305 Advanced Studio  This course permits advanced individual exploration of techniques and principles introduced in the 200-level introductory studio courses. The focus varies from semester to semester between two and three dimensional approaches, with occasional thematic topics such as the human figure, still-life, collage/montage/assemblage, etc. May be repeated a total of four times. 3 Hrs.

ART 307 Introduction to Art in the US  Study of the architecture, sculpture, painting and minor arts of the Colonial period through the present, supplementing courses in American social and political history. 3 Hrs.

BIOLOGY

BIOL 103 Principles of Biology  An introduction to the principles underlying the activities of living organisms; origin of life; molecular biology; cell structure and function; heredity. Laboratory emphasizes the scientific method. Three hours laboratory a week. Lab fee $25. Prerequisite: High school chemistry or CHEM101 or 111. 4 Hrs.

BIOL 111 Human Anatomy
A study of the structure of the human body. 3 Hrs. (Fall)

BIOL 111 Human Anatomy Laboratory
Study of human osteology; dissection of the cat and other mammalian organs. Three hours laboratory a week. Lab Fee $25. 1 Hr. (Fall)

BIOL 112 Human Physiology
A study of the functions of the human body. Laboratory study designed to demonstrate basic physiological principles. Three hours laboratory a week. Prerequisite: CHEM101; BIOL111 is strongly recommended. Lab fee $25. 4 Hrs. (Spring)

BIOL 120 Introduction to Medical Microbiology
Principles of microbiology with emphasis on the pathogenic bacteria, viruses, rickettsiae and fungi. Laboratory includes methods for cultivation, isolation and identification of the above. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory a week. Lab fee $25. May not be counted toward a major except in Nursing. 4 Hrs.

BIOL 307 Introduction to Microbiology
General survey of microorganisms with emphasis on morphology, metabolism, ecology and identification of bacteria. Laboratory emphasizes basic skills and sterile techniques. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory a week. Lab fee $25. Prerequisite: BIOL103, CHEM111. 4 Hrs.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

BUSN 115 Introduction to Business
This course is an introduction to each of the principal areas of the business curriculum: accounting, finance, management and marketing, as well as the role of business in American society and the nature of the private enterprise system.

BUSN 207 Financial Accounting
This course introduces financial accounting principles. Topics to be covered include recording of transactions, preparation of various journals, posting of ledgers and preparation of income statements and balance sheets. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 208 Managerial Accounting
This course introduces the theory, methods and uses of accounting information in solving business problems. Topics include accounting for partnerships, corporations and income taxes. Prerequisite: BUSN 207. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 305 Business Law I
This is an introduction to law with an emphasis on the legal rights and duties of the individual engaged in business. Topics to be covered include contracts, sales, personal property and bailments. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 306 Intermediate Accounting
This is a study of financial accounting theory and generally accepted accounting principles as they apply to decision making. The interrelationship of accounting standards with information needs of creditors and investors provides a central theme. The role that cash flow analysis plays in gathering and presenting financial information is also a key component in the course. Prerequisite: BUSN 207. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 309 Advanced Managerial Accounting
This course is a continuation of the study of analysis that uses accounting data to manage enterprises. Topics include Activity Based Costing/Management/Budgeting, the theory of constraints and throughput accounting, standard and Kaizen costing, benchmarking, and the "Balanced Scorecard." Prerequisite: BUSN 208. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 315 Business Law II
This is a continuation of the study of law as it affects the individual engaged in business. Topics include agency, partnerships, corporations, real property and government regulation of business. Prerequisite: BUSN 305. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 318 Financial Statement Analysis
This is a study of the analysis of financial statements by creditors and investors. Factors that impact the presentation of financial statement information are covered, as are the behavioral responses that result from financial analysis. Topics include the study of cutting edge technology that captures and retrieves financial data, the role of regulators in influencing presentation of data to the public, and the dangers of misrepresented financial information. Prerequisite: BUSN 207. 3 Hrs.

BUSN 320 Business Ethics
This is an analysis of business policies and practices with respect to their social impact; patterns of governmental regulations; political activities of trade associations and other special-interest groups; the relationship between public policy and the growth of corporate enterprise and the social responsibilities of business management. ENGL 337 Comedy
This course examines the nature of comedy as a literary form from low farce to sophisticated high comedy in prose fiction, film and drama. Beginning with classic examples from Aristophanes, Shakespeare and Moliere, the course will focus finally on the contributions of such modern writers as Shaw, Neil Simon and Woody Allen. Attention will center upon comedy's manipulation of language, character, plot and traditional "lazzi" to accomplish its special cathartic purpose of keeping humanity close to sanity and balance. 3 Hrs.

ENGL 350 Contemporary Literature  This course provides an opportunity for examination of authors, genres and movements prominent on the literary scene since 1950. Topics will vary. May be repeated once with different topics. 3 Hrs.

ENGL 355 Special Studies in Literature: Drama, Fiction, Poetry  Students will read works of literature and interpret them in the light of modern critical essays and selected works by major authors. Seminar for seniors only. 3 Hrs. (alt. Spring)

ENGL 455 Independent Study Literature: Drama, Fiction, Poetry  Independent study of a topic in drama, fiction, or poetry resulting in a research paper which is evaluated by two members of the department. Open to junior and senior majors with a 3.0 average in English. Student must have taken at least six hours of upper-level English courses and have permission of the department. 1-3 Hrs.

ENGL 460 Studies in Literature and Criticism  Students will read works of literature and interpret them in the light of modern critical essays and selected works by major authors. Seminar for seniors only. 3 Hrs. (alt. Spring)

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

ENVR 101 Environmental Science  A study of some of the environmental issues confronting our modern society. Selected scientific principles are considered to the extent necessary for a basic understanding of environmental problems, and some attention is given to the role of science and technology in the development and possible solutions of the problems. Specific topics include natural ecosystems, human population, food production, energy, transportation, water pollution and air pollution. Three hours lecture, two hours laboratory a week. Lab fee $25. 4 Hrs.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

FREN 101, 102 Elementary French  Presentation of the basic structure of the language, with emphasis on correct oral and written use of the language. 3 Hrs., 3 Hrs.

GERM 101, 102 Elementary German I and II  Presentation of the basic structure of the language, with emphasis on correct oral and written use of the language. 3 Hrs., 3 Hrs.

LANG 101, 102 Elementary Foreign Language  Fundamentals of grammar and phonetics, reading, writing and conversation. Specific languages can be offered based on demand and faculty interest. 3 Hrs., 3 Hrs.

SPAN 101, 102 Elementary Spanish  Presentation of basic grammatical structure with emphasis on correct oral and written use of the language; introduction to the Hispanic civilizations. 3 Hrs., 3 Hrs.
FREN 442 or SPAN 442
Methods and Materials for Foreign Language Teaching
Required for students who wish to teach foreign language at the secondary and/or elementary level. Study of current trends in methodology, resources, materials and strategies applicable to foreign language instruction. 3 Hrs.

HISTORY

HIST 201 Western Civilization to 1600: the Emergence of the West
A survey of the history of civilization from the ancient world to the European crises of the seventeenth century, with emphasis upon the political, social, cultural, and intellectual development of Western civilization. 3 Hrs. (Fall)

HIST 202 Western Civilization Since 1600: the West in the World
A survey of the history of civilization from the end of the religious wars and the emergence of the great European powers to the crises of the twentieth century and nuclear age, with emphasis generally upon the political, social, cultural, and intellectual development of Western civilization. 3 Hrs. (Spring)

Rise of an American tradition; establishment of a nation; economic and social developments; expansion and sectional controversy; war and reconstruction. 3 Hrs.

HIST 204 The United States Since 1877
Settling the West; the triumph of business; reform movements and foreign affairs; the New Deal era; the Cold War era. 3 Hrs.

HIST 315 Oral History
Examination of ways in which cultures were preserved in the past (folklore, work and protest songs, handicrafts, etc.) and the study of and practice in methodology of gathering and preserving historical information in oral form. 3 Hrs.

HIST 325 American Foreign Policy to 1945
Major themes in the history of American diplomacy to 1945 with emphasis on their applications, modification, and development in relation to America's increased responsibilities as a world power. Prerequisites: HIST 105 or 203 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 340 African-American History
This course concentrates on the history of African-Americans from the colonial period to the present. It introduces students to the historical literature concerning the course of slavery in the United States, its abolition and aftermath, as well as the experience of free blacks in the North and South. It focuses on the institutionalization of segregation and African-American efforts to achieve equality in an unequal system, culminating in the civil rights movement of the recent period. Cultural history - art, literature, and music - are integral to the course, as is the experience of African-American women. 3 Hrs.

HIST 341 Civil Rights Movements in Modern America
In 1903 W.E.B. DuBois, the great African-American scholar and activist, argued that "the problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line." This course explores the unraveling of the color line in postwar America from a political and cultural perspective. Central to our task will be an analysis of the strategies and tactics grass roots political activists employed in their assault on disenfranchisement and Jim Crow segregation. We will also assess the tensions which emerged between a civil rights movement based on the principle of integration and a black liberation movement which emphasized self-separation. At the same time this course will examine the creation of an African-American "movement culture" that found expression in music, traditional arts, literature, and black power. Finally, we will assess the limitations of black political activism and the failed struggle for civil rights in the North. Prerequisite: HIST204, POLS 201, or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 346 North Carolina History A careful study of the events and personalities which have shaped North Carolina. This course permits students to become actively engaged in historical analysis by focusing on local history, and in some cases, by visiting historic sites. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 203 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 347 The Old South This course traces the history of the South from the 1780’s to 1865. In particular, it will study the social, economic, political, cultural, and religious history of the old South, with special attention to the plantation system, the institution of slavery, gender relations, the sectional crisis and the Civil War. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 203 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 348 The New South This course traces the history of the South from 1865 to the present. While political events from Reconstruction to the Civil Rights Movement frame the context, the course also examines the social and cultural context of the South through literature, art, and music. It pays particular attention to the history of race, gender, and labor issues that continue to occupy southerners today. It explores southern stereotypes and grapples with the question of regional difference and ideology. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 349 The Civil War and Reconstruction This course will examine the social, political, economic, and cultural causes and consequences of the American Civil War and Reconstruction. The course will emphasize the African-American experience, the civilian experience, the common soldier’s experience, the major military campaigns, and politics. Text and readings for the course will include, but not be limited to, the work of Bruce Catton, Archer Jones, Kenneth Stampp, and Michael Perman. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 203 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 350 Topics in Film and History This course will consider films as historical documents and the filmmaker as historian. The purpose of the course is to explore major historical events and thematic topics in history as they are reflected in film and as they affect the making of film. Focus will be on the relation between the historical record and the film record. Topics will include such things as the Depression era, women and film, the Vietnam War. 3 Hrs.

HIST 351 Pop Culture and the Consumer Ethic in American History In the 1920s flappers and families dominated American comic strips. In the 1930s these strips were replaced by the likes of Buck Rogers, Dick Tracy, and Batman. Why the change and what does the shift tell us about America’s transition from the Roaring Twenties to the Great Depression? In this course we will examine such questions, exploring the varied meanings behind expressions of popular culture and what such cultural forms tell us about the period in which they were created. This course will also explore the historical underpinnings behind the rise of mass media, paying specific attention the interplay between industrialization and mass production and a culture based on the principle of consumption. 3 Hrs.

HIST 363 The History of Our Time This seminar is an exercise in the historical imagination. It considers those events and persons which dominate today’s headlines, and considers them from an historical perspective. Specific themes will vary from semester to semester, but may include, for example, investigations of world conflicts, political controversies, social and economic developments, and cultural debates. Prerequisite: To be announced. 3 Hrs.

HIST 389 Topics in United States History Topics are announced annually. Prerequisites: HIST 105 or 203 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 392 American Women Derived from primary sources of women themselves, this study examines the central role of women in U.S. history. The study focuses on the period 1830 to the present, with particular attention given to race, region, and class. 3 Hrs.
HIST 395 Intellectual History of the United States A study of the intellectual tradition of the nation and the unique synthesis of ideas that has characterized American thought. Through examination of a cross-section of the works of major intellectual figures and exploration of the modes of thought of various generations, the course aims to provide students with deeper insights into the development of the "American" mind. Among topics under consideration are: the Puritan Mind, the American Enlightenment, ideas of the New Republic, the Mind of the South, individualism, pragmatism, conservatism, and reform. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 203 or 204. 3 Hrs.

HIST 397 The United States: 1920 to 1945 The domestic history of the United States from 1920 to 1945; stress placed on diverse cultural and intellectual developments with special attention to the strain of social change and the subsequent responses of the institutions and movements. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 204 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 398 The United States: 1945 to the Present The domestic history of the United States during the post-World War II years; stress placed on the 1950s and 1960s and the intellectual, cultural, and social ferment from that period to the present. Prerequisite: HIST 105 or 204 or 397 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

HIST 449 Directed Readings in History Independent investigation of a topic through a program of directed readings. There will be an interpretive paper and oral examination conducted by department members. Open to majors with a B average in history after departmental approval of the topic. 1-3 Hrs.

HIST 450 Independent Study in History Independent investigation of a topic through the writing of a research paper; oral examination conducted by department members. Open to majors with a B average in history after departmental approval of the topic or project. 1-3 Hrs.

HUMAN & COMMUNITY SERVICES

HCSV 101 Introduction to Human & Community Services This course will introduce the student to historical development of the human service professional and the models of service delivery. Topics will include the philosophy, values, concepts, language, problems and broad scope of human services, as well as exposure to various agencies and agency policies. 3 Hrs.

HCSV 300 Topics in Human and Community Services This course will require intensive consideration of a single topic in human and community services. Topics and prerequisites will vary depending on the topic and instructor. 3 Hrs.

HCSV 350 Independent Study in Human and Community Services Independent investigation of a topic through a program of directed readings or research project. Requires prior approval of the supervising professor and the division chairperson. 1-3 Hrs.
HCSV 352 Topics in Human and Community Services
Investigation of a single topic or area of human and community services. The topic may vary from term to term. May be taken more than once with different subtitles. 3 Hrs.

HCSV 400 Senior Seminar in Human & Community Services
This is the capstone course of the program. The course requires the integration of the major theories and principles from each of the preceding courses so that the student creates a defining perspective of the entire program of study. Prerequisites: All other core courses. 3 Hrs.

INFORMATION SYSTEMS

ISYS 110 Fundamentals of Microcomputers
This course introduces the fundamentals the personal computer (PC) with emphasis on the use of the PC to improve personal productivity. Application topics include word processing, spreadsheet, database, presentation graphics and communication software. 3 Hrs. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

ISYS 120 Advanced Concepts in Microcomputers
This course provides advanced instruction in personal productivity applications using word processing, spreadsheet, database and presentation graphics software. Prerequisite: ISYS110 or permission of the department. 3 hrs.

ISYS 230 Introduction to the Internet
An overview of the Internet from an end-user perspective. Topics include the structure and uses of the Internet, use of web browser software and creating personal web pages. Prerequisite: ISYS110 and sophomore standing or permission of the department. 3 hrs.

ISYS 240 Applications Programming I
An introduction to software engineering methodologies and the development of software applications using RAD tools. Topics include interface design, structured programming and file input/output. Programming concepts are applied using the Visual Basic development environment. (Fall)

ISYS 250 Applications Programming II
Extension of the concepts and skills presented in ISYS 240. Topics include object oriented programming, database connectivity, client-server software development and an overview of software development systems. Programming concepts are applied using the Visual Basic development environment. Prerequisite: ISYS 240 (Spring)

ISYS 270 Introduction to Information Systems
An overview of the nature and uses of information systems in today’s society. Topics range from hardware and software technologies to issues of privacy and ethics. Intended for both IS and non-IS majors. (Fall, Spring)

ISYS 350 Systems Analysis, Design and Implementation
Concepts, principles, tools and techniques of information systems analysis and design. Topics include the role and responsibilities of modern systems analysts. Students will complete a significant systems analysis and design project. Prerequisite: ISYS 240. 3 hrs. (Fall)
ISYS 370  Database Management Systems  Design and development of database management systems. Topics include file systems, the relational database model, structured query language and normalization and database design. Students will complete the detailed physical design and implementation of a database system. Prerequisite: ISYS 350. 3 hrs. (Spring)

ISYS 410 Networking and Telecommunications  In-depth coverage of telecommunications fundamentals, including voice-video-data for LAN, MANN and WAN network systems. Topics include data communication and telecommunication concepts, models, and standards. Installation, configuration, systems integration and management of the technologies will be practiced. Prerequisite: ISYS 350. 3 hrs.

ISYS 450 Project Management and Practice  Factors necessary for successful management of major projects. Topics include both the technical and behavioral aspects of project management and the project management body of knowledge (PMBOK). Intended for both Business and IS majors. Prerequisite: ISYS 350 or permission of the department. 3hrs.

ISYS 470 Senior System Project  Advanced IS majors engage in and complete the design and implementation of a significant information system. Project management, management of the IS function and systems integration are components of the project experience. Prerequisite: ISYS 350. 3 hrs.

ISYS 490 Current Issues in Information Systems  An advanced readings course dealing with relevant issues in the IT industry. Topics include current and evolving standards, current and emerging technologies, government regulation, e-commerce, IT workforce management, security, ethics and privacy. Prerequisite: ISYS 370. 3 hrs.

ISYS 492 Topics in Information Systems  An investigation of specialized areas of computer information systems not covered by other courses. Course topic is announced the semester preceding the offering. Prerequisite: to be determined for each specific course offered. 3 hrs. May be repeated with different subtitles.

ISYS 495 Directed Reading / Independent Study  A program of directed readings or a research project. Requires approval of the supervising professor and the Dean of the College. Open to senior majors in Information Systems with a GPA 3.0 in the major. 1-3 hours.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

IDST 200 Interdisciplinary Studies  An interdisciplinary course examining a major contemporary issue, offered in response to student and faculty interest. Elective credit only. 3 Hrs.

IDST 300 Interdisciplinary Studies  An interdisciplinary course examining a major contemporary issue, offered in response to student and faculty interest. Elective credit only. 3 Hrs.
INTERNSHIP

INTE 496 Professional Internship/Field Experience
This course enables students to make a strong connection between theory and practice, study and work. It is designed for a student who has significant previous work experience and hopes to gain experience and skills in a new work environment. Students will work 130 hours for 3 hours of academic credit (86 for 2 hours and 43 for 1 hour of credit). Attendance at monthly seminars, reflection papers, and a final paper and presentation are required of each student. Approval of the internship site must be given by the Blair House for Internships and Career Programs. 1 to 3 Hrs.

MATHEMATICS

MATH 099 Basic Mathematics
This is a developmental mathematics course including topics generally found in high school algebra II. Credit for this course may not be used towards graduation. 3 Hrs. (Fall)

MATH 104 Mathematical Ideas
This course will explore topics selected from number theory, probability theory, topology, and set theory. In addition, such areas as logic, modern geometries, chaos theory, and fractals may be addressed. Throughout, unifying concepts of investigation, conjecture, counter examples, and applications will be stressed. NOTE: This course does not prepare the student for subsequent enrollment in statistics or calculus. 3 Hrs. (Spring, Summer)

MATH 105 Finite Mathematics
Systems of equations, matrices, coordinate systems and graphs and an introduction to linear programming, stochastic matrices, the mathematics of finance, difference equations and mathematical models. All topics are applied to illustrate the uses of finite mathematics in other disciplines. High School Algebra. 3 Hrs. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

MATH 111 Precalculus
Topics will include functions and their graphs, exponential and logarithmic functions, trigonometric functions, trigonometric equations, the theory of polynomials, systems of equations, sequences, and analytic geometry. 3 Hrs.

MATH 206 Statistical Methods
An introduction to data analysis and statistical concepts. Interpretation and calculations for description of single variables and simple regression, basic probability, random variables, confidence intervals, and tests of hypotheses. Computer software is introduced. Prerequisite: MATH 103, 105, or above. 3 Hrs. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

MUSIC

MUSC 100 Introduction to Music
Study of the basic materials of music, survey of the important composers and examination of selected masterpieces with reference to cultural background; technical knowledge of music not necessary for enrollment. 3 Hrs.

MUSC 175 Voice Class
Students with little or no vocal training are instructed in the basic vocal principles, simple exercises and songs; regular practice is required. Open to all students. 1 Hr.

MUSC 200 Popular American Music 1900-1968 A survey of the blues, jazz, and rock’n’roll from the turn of the century to 1968. Important artists and composers will be studied and representative examples of the music will be experienced on record and, as resources permit, in live setting. It is designed for the general student and may be taken to fulfill the Hayworth College fine arts requirement. 3 Hrs.

MUSC 355 Topics in Music History & Literature An in-depth study of a specific musical era or genre. Significant developments, genres and composers will be studied from the social and cultural context. 3 Hrs.

MUSC 207 Music in America A survey of music and musical practices in the United States from colonial times to the present, with particular emphasis on those inherent qualities which have permeated America’s serious and popular music over the past three centuries. 3 Hrs.

APPLIED MUSIC

The designation for the individual instrument studies is indicated by the letter following the course number: (p) piano, (o) organ, (s) strings, (v) voice, (w) wind instrument, (g) guitar, (h) harp, (z) other instruments.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

Piano, organ, strings, voice, harp, guitar, or other instrument. The general aim of private instruction is development of all phases of performance: technique, style, musicianship, interpretation, and repertoire. Instructors are assigned by the chairman of the department, and students usually remain with the same instructor throughout the course of study. Students registered for two credits per term receive 60 minutes of individual instruction; students registered for one credit per term receive 30 minutes of individual instruction. Fees range from $75 to $150 per course.

MUSC 161 Private Instruction in Applied Music For non-music majors. One hour of daily practice required. May be repeated for credit. 1 Hr., 1 Hr. (Fall/Spring/Summer)

MUSC 161 Private Instruction in Applied Music For non-music majors. Two hours of daily practice required. May be repeated for credit. 2 Hrs., 2 Hrs. (Fall/Spring/Summer)

NATURAL SCIENCES

NSCI101 Issues in Science

This course will present issues of current interest in the sciences that are not offered on a regular basis in the curriculum. Topics are announced annually. May not count toward any science or mathematics major. May be repeated for credit under different subtitles. 3 Hrs.

NURSING

NURS 201 Introduction to Professional Nursing This non-clinical course introduces the student to professional nursing. This practice discipline is examined using the concepts relevant to nursing within the framework of the nursing process. 3 Hrs.
NURS 202 Health Assessment
This course focuses on the holistic assessment of healthy individuals. Selected experiences enable students to integrate knowledge and skills including observation, interview and physical examination. Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 111 Lab. 3 Hrs.

NURS 203 Introduction to Clinical Nursing
This introductory clinical course focuses on the nursing process through selected theoretical and nursing skills. Clinical experiences provide opportunities for students to practice beginning nursing skills. Fee: $10. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: NURS 201 and NURS 202. 4 Hrs.

NURS 204 Pharmacology
This foundation course focuses on classifications, physiological actions, adverse effects and responses to medication therapy. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: BIOL 112 or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

NURS 205 Nutrition
This course includes the basic principles of human nutrition as it applies to all life cycle stages with emphasis on nutrients and their utilization in the human body. Food patterns, availability, acceptability, and safety are stressed as they relate to individuals and population groups. Open to all students. 3 Hrs.

NURS 260 Directed Study in Nursing
This directed study is designed to encourage students to study a nursing topic of interest to the student and the profession. Contract objectives will be developed in consultation with a nursing faculty who will serve as mentor for the project. May be repeated for credit. 1, 2 Hrs.

NURS 300 Nursing: A Practice Discipline
This non-clinical course focuses on the discipline of professional nursing. Concepts relevant to nursing are explored. Health assessment skills are enhanced. Prerequisite: Registered Nurse student ready to apply to the nursing major or permission of the instructor. 4 Hrs.

NURS 303 Adult Nursing
The course focuses on utilization of the nursing process in the care of adults with alterations in health status. Course content includes etiology, pathophysiology, collaborative and nursing management of common illnesses. Clinical practice takes place primarily in acute care settings. Course Fee: $10. Prerequisite: Acceptance to the nursing major. 9 Hrs.

NURS 307 Mental Health Nursing
This course examines the nursing care of persons with mental, emotional, or psychiatric disorders. Students utilize the nursing process in caring for clients in both inpatient and outpatient mental health settings. Prerequisite: Acceptance to the nursing major, PSYC 304. 4 Hrs.

NURS 315 Parent-Child Nursing
This course focuses on utilization of the nursing process in the care of childbearing/childrearing families. Course content includes health promotion, disease prevention and illness management. Clinical practice takes place in a variety of settings. Lab fee: $10. Prerequisite: NURS 303. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: PSYC 320. 9 Hrs.

NURS 360 Topics in Nursing
This course is designed to investigate a current topic or specialized area of nursing. The topics include... vary from term to term and provide the student an opportunity to study a topic that is not offered on a regular basis in the curriculum. 3 Hrs.

NURS 400 Nursing Research
In this writing-intensive course, students examine the research process through critical appraisal of existing nursing research. Analysis of previous studies guides teams of students in designing research projects aimed at the resolution of identified clinical nursing problems. Emphasis is on utilization of research findings to establish evidence-based nursing interventions. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: MATH 206. 3 Hrs.

NURS 401 Management in Nursing
This course emphasizes management theory in health care delivery. Principles of management and changes within the health care system are related to nursing practice. Prerequisites: All requisite 300 level nursing courses, or permission of the instructor. 3 Hrs.

NURS 402 Community Health Nursing
This course examines nursing as part of the larger health care delivery system. Emphasis is on identification of health and health promotion needs of families and communities. Demographic and epidemiological data are explored to identify populations at risk. Clinical experiences occur in a wide variety of community agencies. Prerequisite: All requisite 300 level nursing courses. 6 Hrs.

NURS 442 Complex Nursing Situations
This clinical course focuses on analysis and synthesis of concepts from nursing and the physical, social, and behavioral science. Students refine, broaden and expand their perspectives of nursing practice. Prerequisite: Registered Nurse, NURS 402. Prerequisite/co-requisite: NURS 401. 6 Hrs.

NURS 452 Nursing Perspectives
Current trends and issues in professional nursing are explored. Projections of nursing for the future are made in light of historical bases and current trends. Prerequisite: Senior level nursing status. 2 Hrs.

NURS 460 Independent Study in Nursing
Independent investigation of a selected topic in nursing is accomplished through faculty mentorship. Directed readings culminate in a scholarly paper. May be repeated for credit. 1,2,3 Hrs.

NURS 498 Nursing Internship I
This clinical internship focuses on the application of concepts from nursing and the physical, social, and behavioral sciences to the clinical setting. Lab Fee: $10 Prerequisite: NURS 315. Prerequisite/Co-requisite: NURS 401. 4 Hrs.

NURS 499 Nursing Internship II
In this clinical internship course students continue to refine, broaden and expand their perspectives of professional nursing practice. Lab fee: $10. Prerequisite: NURS 498. 2-4 Hrs.

GRADUATE NURSING COURSES

NURS 612 Theoretical Foundations of Nursing Practice
This course focuses on the development and analysis of knowledge from nursing and related disciplines. Theory as a foundation for nursing practice and nursing research will be examined. 3 Hrs.
NURS 614 Issues in Advanced Practice Nursing  This course is designed to foster a multidisciplinary approach to the resolution of health care issues. Practice, social, epidemiological, and environmental issues will be analyzed from the perspective of advanced practice nursing. 3 Hrs.

NURS 616 Health Care Administration  This course examines fundamentals of health care administration including concepts of accounting, economics, finance, management, and marketing. Emphasis centers on integration of these topics into an expansive model to provide an underlying foundation for managers in health care settings. Prerequisites: BUSN502 and BUSN516.  3 Hrs.

NURS 624 Health Policy  This course will focus on developing a comprehensive knowledge of how health policy is formulated, and how it impacts clinical practice and health care delivery. The use of the negotiation to influence the policy process will be discussed. 3 Hrs.

NURS 628 Health Care Informatics  This course focuses on developing an understanding of the concepts relevant to health care informatics and the use of information technology in health care organizations. A main focus is the use of computer applications to support clinical and administrative decision making. Since students taking this course are expected to use the Internet and the World Wide Web, students need: a computer with a browser that facilitates access to the World Wide Web, and an e-mail account. 3 Hrs.

NURS 632 Research Methods  This course focuses on research methodology, critical analysis of studies, and the relationship among theory, research, and practice. Students will develop a study design to conduct clinically relevant research. Prerequisites: Statistics and computer literacy, and NURS612.  3 Hrs.

NURS 634 Health Care Practicum  This practicum focuses on collaboration between nurses in leadership roles and other members of the interdisciplinary health team. Graduate nursing students, paired with preceptors, have the opportunity to participate in the leadership of health care organizations, thereby, synthesizing all learning from previous course work. Students analyze health care organizations in the broader context of community health delivery systems. Case studies are analyzed in seminars. A scholarly project is conducted, presented, and submitted for publication. Prerequisite: All other MSN required courses. 6 hrs NURS 680 Independent Study  This course is designed to meet individual learning needs that build on current courses in the curriculum. May be repeated for credit. 1, 2, or 3 Hrs.

ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION

OCOM 301 Intercultural Communication  The examination of the relationship between communication and culture. Students will explore the challenges of global business environments, international organizations and conducting business in international settings.
NOTE: This course satisfies the International Issues requirement. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 303 Persuasion
The study of theoretical and applied persuasive communication. Students will explore the broad theories of persuasion as they may assist in the analysis of communicated messages. Areas and theories to be studied include: attitude change; persuasive language; proof, evidence and reasoning; cultural appeals; negotiation and sales. The course's focus is on both becoming a critical receiver of persuasion and an effective persuader. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 305 Organizational Communication
This course is designed to explore the broad theories and applications of organizational and managerial communication and to develop critical skills to improve communication in business settings. Students will investigate communication flow and processes within organizational contexts including: communication in management; work delegation; interpersonal relationships in the workplace; communication in small group contexts involving decision making, meetings and team building; conflict management; networking; sexual harassment and office politics. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 309 Communication Campaigns
Communication campaigns are focused, large-scale efforts to exert social influence. This course deals with the planning, organization, implementation and valuation of various political, advertising, public relations and social campaigns. Students will analyze both classic and current communication campaigns as well as prepare and present their own campaign for a given organization, product, or issue. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 310 Communication in Management
A study of the theory of how humans use linguistic and non-linguistic codes to establish, manage, and lead business relationships. The course includes outcome setting, dovetailing of outcomes with subordinates and superiors, increasing behavioral flexibility, and negotiating. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 312 Nonverbal Communication
This course examines the various theories, research and applications of nonverbal communication in both personal and professional contexts. Areas to be studied include the following: body movement and gestures; clothing and personal artifacts; facial expression and eye behavior; use of space and territory; touching behavior; paralanguage and voice characteristics; and deception detection. The above areas will be applied to the contexts of interpersonal relationships, the workplace, and cultural differences. 3 Hrs.

OCOM 313 Topics in Organizational Communication

HONOR CODE VIOLATIONS

The process is triggered by an allegation that a student violated the Honor Code. The allegation may come from a faculty member or a student. The faculty member may contact the implicated student and make grade determinations, but may NOT sanction student officially. The official process begins when the faculty member or implicated student contacts the Dean of Hayworth College (HC), who appoints HC Assistant Director of Academic Affairs to gather information. HC Assistant Director of Academic Affairs contacts the student to inform of him/her of the allegation and requests a response. Assistant Director also contacts the faculty member for a written statement.

At this point, if the student denies the claim and the faculty member does not have sufficient evidence, no further follow-up is undertaken. On the other hand, if the student admits the violation to the honor code, sanctions (listed below) are determined by the HC Hearing Board. However, if the student denies the allegation, but there is sufficient evidence, the HC Hearing Board in convened.

The Hearing Board is composed of three members appointed annually by the Chair of HC Student Qualifications Committee (SQC). The three members are a faculty member from HC - SQC, a student from the HC Ambassadors list, and an administrator, preferably the Registrar or the HC Academic Advisor. At the hearing, both faculty member and student are invited to attend and respond to questions. Witnesses may attend and respond to questions. The student may bring one [silent] support person. No legal council may be present.

Sanctions are determined by the Hearing Board.

Options are as follows:

1. Formal, written reprimand – with/without recommendation for faculty to assign "F"

2. Academic probation with/without recommendation for faculty to assign "F"

3. Suspension from HC for one or more courses and/or one or more terms

4. Expulsion from HC [permanent].

5. Other as deemed appropriate.

Records of sanctions are kept by HC Academic Advisor. No tuition or fees are refunded.

The appeals process may be initiated by the faculty member or student with a written statement. Written appeals are reviewed by HC Dean, who consults with Queens College Dean of Students and makes a final determination.

The process from allegation to hearing will be accomplished within ONE WEEK.
Title II of the Higher Education Act

In keeping with Queens College liberal arts focus, undergraduate elementary education majors complete two planned teaching specialty areas among the following: Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, Mathematics, and Psychology. Undergraduate students pursuing secondary license fulfill the requirements for an academic major in Biology, English, History, Mathematics, Social Studies, French or Spanish. They complete the required education coursework as a concentration. All undergraduate students seeking licensure student teach during the last semester of their senior year.

In addition to the undergraduate program, Queens College offers a Masters of Arts in Teaching (MAT) and secondary licensure in selected academic areas. Please see the Undergraduate catalog or the Hayworth Catalog for additional information.

On both the undergraduate and graduate level, students and professors have close professional relationships. Classes are small; assignments are authentic; technology integration is part of every methods course. All education programs at Queens College require early and frequent field experience in a variety of classrooms in Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools (CMS). Because of the excellence of Queens’ reputation, all licensed teachers are currently offered contracts in CMS. Evidence of Queens’ mission, “to educate students for noble lives, productive careers, and responsible citizenship, all within a changing global community”, is apparent in all education programs.
